Official Information Has Yet Been Received From Commodore Dewey—All Their News From Press Dispatches. Likely to Hold Possession of a Good Port as a Coaling Station—Japan Likely to Get the First Details of the Great Battle—That Government Has Not Yet Issued Her Decree of Neutrality—To Our Interest For Her to Withhold It. The Naval Militia Offering Its Aid to the United States Government—No Talk of Intervention by the Powers—The American Navy the Equal of the World No Longer Doubted by European Nations—Dewey May Be Promoted to an Admiral—Flags Displayed in Honor of the Victory at Manila in Washington.

LONDON, May 3.—Commodore Dewey, according to a reported dispatch from Madrid, gave Captain General Augusti 24 hours to comply with an ultimatum, which demanded all warlike stores and the entire stock of coal in charge of the government officials. The ultimatum asserted that no money levy would be made upon Manila.

The dispatch says it is believed in Madrid that the government has already cabled Captain General Augusti authority to comply with the demand, no other course being open. Grave events may follow public knowledge of this compliance.

HONGKONG, May 3.—There is no news of the American squadron beyond a private telegram from Captain Concha of the Spanish cruiser Don Juan de Austria to his children at a convent school here. It is assumed from this that the Americans were reconnoitering the entrance and trying the southern side of the island, which is six miles wide, and surrounded by rocks and shoals, though not believed to be mined.

There is no news either of the Spanish squadron, but according to the latest advices it could not take the offensive in any case. The cable to Manila is now interrupted.

The steamer Esmeralda, chartered by the banking companies here to bring away the specie from Manila, reached there and it is believed that she has been boarded by the Americans.

LONDON, May 3.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times, describing the engagement at Manila, says:

"The Olympia, the Boston, the Raleigh, the Concord, the Petrel and the Monacaey entered the bay under cover of darkness by the smaller and safer Bocachica channel. The forts of Corregidor island gave the alarm by firing on the intruders, but they seem to have inflicted no serious damage. The American squadron moved up the bay and at 3 o'clock in the morning appeared before Cavite. Here, lying under the shelter of the forts, was the Spanish squadron.

"Admiral Montejó, a few days before, went to Subic bay to look for the enemy, but learning that they were vastly superior in force, had prudently returned and placed his ships under the protection of the forts. This was his only chance of meeting the enemy on something like equal terms, and it did not suffice.

"Soon the Americans opened fire. The Spanish replied vigorously and the combat continued without interruption for four hours, during which the Don Antonio de Ulloa was sunk, the Castilla and Mindanao were set on fire and the Reina Maria Christina and the Don Juan de Austria were seriously damaged. One or two of the smaller craft were scuttled by their crews to escape capture. Others took refuge in a small neighboring creek emptying into Baker bay, where, presumably, the American ships were unable to follow them. But not one surrendered."

WASHINGTON, May 3.—It is a curious fact that the nation most directly interested of all the great powers in the combat that took place at Manila should be the only one to know of the result. Up to the close of office hours absolutely the only information that our government had received of the brilliant victory of Commodore Dewey and the winning of the battle of Manila on May day came to the government through the medium of the press dispatches. If the report is true that Commodore Dewey has begun a bombardment and blockade of the city of Manila it is unlikely that he can spare a vessel from his fleet to carry the news to Hongkong, the nearest cable station, so it is not known when official advices will come.

There was some expectation that through the surrender of the city the commodore might acquire control of the cable, but even then there might be practical difficulties in communicating through it. The officers of Commodore Dewey's fleet includes at least one lieutenant who is a good practical electrician and telegrapher, but it is not known positively that he is able to work a cable successfully. Second, a fear is entertained that before retiring from the city the Spanish troops will smash the delicate and complicated electrical apparatus for the reception and dispatch of messages, and it is very uncertain whether there is enough technical skill in the American fleet to repair such damage without aid from the main land.

From the stubborn defense made by the Spaniards, it is feared that before they burnt, blew up or sunk their ships they managed to inflict severe damage upon Commodore Dewey's squadron.

All the ships engaged were vulnerable in one respect—namely, in their lack of protection to life. There was not an armored ship in Commodore Dewey's fleet, the nearest approach being the flagship Olympia. She had some coal protection around the sides and an arched steel deck calculated to protect the vitals of the ship. The other vessels of the fleet, save those recently added to the navy, like the McCulloch, have lighter steel decks of this character, but in all cases, with the exception of some slight protection in the shape of gun shields, the personnel of the ships was exposed to the fire of the enemy.

As to the future of the island, it is likely that the government will retain possession of at least one good port, such as Manila, for a coaling station and base of supplies during the remainder of the war. It is believed the officials have not decided what to do with the islands at the end of the war, but in their possession the United States will enjoy a powerful weapon in enforcing terms of peace with Spain. Supposing Porto Rico shall next be seized, it would seem that Spain will have little to encourage her in further resistance, particularly as the fall of Porto Rico would mean the loss to her of her ironclad fleet should it cross the Atlantic.

There is no talk yet of European intervention, but one of the most beneficial results of Dewey's victory is that a deep impression has been made upon the European powers who can no longer afford to blind themselves to the fact that man to man the American navy is equal to any in the world. The impression produced is likely to deter the European powers from hasty intervention and the present indications are that we shall be left to settle our affairs with Spain at our own pleasure, always providing we do not get involved in the eastern question through obtaining possession of the Philippines.

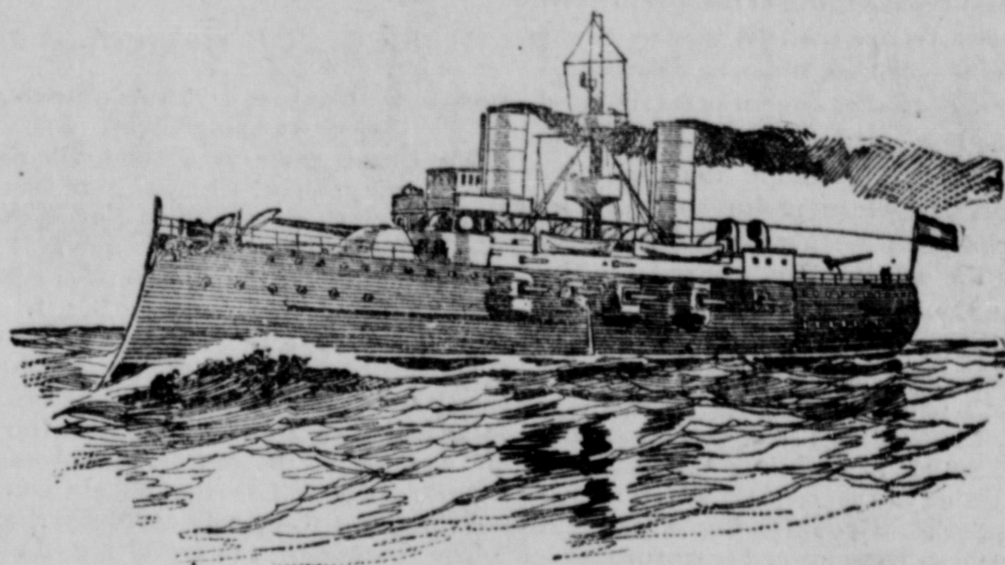

It is entirely possible Commodore Dewey may secure his promotion to the rank of admiral through the splendid exhibition of pluck, discretion and sailor qualities he made in the engagement.

The naval militia of the country is hastening to extend its aid to the government. Commander Emerson of the Maryland naval militia came to the navy department and informed Lieutenant Gibbons that he had gathered another battalion of 180 men which would be ready soon for active service. Commander Little of the Rhode Island naval militia was also a visitor at the department, and explained that he had 200 men ready for mobilization. Commander Norton of the North Carolina naval militia called personally and succeeded in having the department change its order, made in the case of the monitor Nantucket, so as to allow the North Carolina militia instead of the militia of South Carolina to take that monitor from Wilmington to Port Royal.

Four flags were displayed for the first time in many months from the staffs of the state, war and navy department building and on the east front a huge garrison flag floated, all in honor of the victory of the American fleet at Manila.

Although the British colonial office had been fully advised of the American success from Manila, the authorities in London did not communicate with the British embassy here, nor did the foreign offices at Paris, Berlin or other capitals notify their representatives here. This is taken to indicate that the foreign offices will not communicate events of a strictly military character, and also that the American occupation of the Philippines has not yet assumed a political aspect at foreign centers.

The Spanish reverse at Manila seriously depletes the Spanish navy at a time when it is most in need of ships. With the burning of the two cruisers, Reina Christina and the Castilla, Spain has lost two of her best second rate cruisers. The cruiser Castilla was slightly larger than the Reina Christina. The Don Juan de Austria, which was blown up, was another good craft. The Spanish navy, aside from the crippling of the Spanish fleet, has been burning up and the blowing up of the ships specified, entails an actual money loss running into the millions.

It turns out that while Japan has given notice she will declare neutrality a decree of neutrality is not yet actually issued, so that Yokohama and other advantageous ports of Japan continue to be open to the American fleet. This is looked upon by the authorities here as an evidence of the friendly disposition of Japan toward the United States. It leaves both the ports of Japan and China still open to our ships.

Proclamation Issued by the Governor of Madrid—Caused by the Defeat at Manila.

MADRID, May 3.—Senor Aguilera, the civil governor of Madrid, has just posted on the walls of the home office the customary proclamation intimating that the civil authorities consider the circumstances justify their handing over to the military authorities the mission of keeping order.

But General Daban, captain general of Madrid, has assumed charge, and the first military patrols have just appeared in the Puerto del Sol. The measure has been taken in consequence of the attitude of certain political parties since yesterday.

The measure has been taken in consequence of the attitude of certain political parties since yesterday. The whole garrison is ready in barracks.

The Madrid newspapers censure the street demonstration made against the cabinet in favor of General Weyler. A crowd of people gathered before General Weyler's residence cheering for the ex-captain general of Cuba, and another crowd went in front of the residence of Minister Sagasta and hooted him. Several arrests were made.

WAR MEASURES PASSED.

The Emergency Deficiency Bill Goes Through the Senate Without Debate. Other Business Transacted.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Several war measures have passed the senate and, notwithstanding their importance, not one of them elicited the slightest debate. Probably the most important measure passed by the senate was the emergency war deficiency bill, carrying $35,720,945. Not more than ten minutes were consumed in passing it, that time being occupied in reading the measure. Mr. Hawley, chairman of the military affairs committee, secured the passage of a bill providing for the enlistment of a volunteer brigade of engineers and of 10,000 men in the south who are immune to yellow fever, these enlistments to be in addition to those provided for in the president's call for 125,000 volunteers. The men will enlist "for the war."

Two other war measures were passed, one suspending for the duration of the war the restrictions placed by existing laws upon the quartermaster's department of the army in order that supplies may be purchased without the present formalities, and the other providing that owners of mining claims shall not forfeit them for not performing assessment work upon them provided they enlist for the war.

The war revenue measure passed by the house of representatives last Friday was received by the senate and referred to the finance committee for consideration.

At the opening of the senate's session the chaplain offered devout thanks for the glorious victory won by Commodore Dewey's Asiatic squadron.

Passed by the House.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The passage of the emergency war bill was the feature in the house. The naval appropriation bill with the senate amendment, providing for the payment of officers of the navy for the use of their inventions by the government stricken out, was reported from conference and passed. The bill now goes to the president.

MUSTERING IN.

The Work Begun at Camp Bushnell Today.

MAJOR HARVARD IN CHARGE

Two Regiments to Be Sent to Newport News—The Examination and Enlistment Will Take a Week or Ten Days. Government Will Issue Arms to Them. New Uniforms Received.

COLUMBUS, May 3.—Major Valery Harvard, detailed by the United States government to examine and muster the national guard at Camp Bushnell, has arrived. He began his task today and expects to finish in a week or ten days.

All day long camp was vocal with the orders of the drill sergeants putting the awkward squads through their paces. In fact, there was hardly a spot in the camp where the sole of a quiet civilian foot could find rest. Wherever one went one found a bunch of wild-eyed yearlings charging at him under the command of a fierce-voiced sergeant or corporal. The result of the hard work is very clearly apparent, however.

The new men are marching well, and, except for lack of uniforms, make a very presentable appearance. Part of the time each day they are given instructions in the manual of arms, and no pains are spared to lick the men into shape as soon as possible.

Major General Axline stated that the government would issue arms to the troops as soon as they are mustered into service. It is anticipated that the new 30-caliber rifle will be issued instead of the old Springfield 45-90. About 400 new uniforms were issued and the new men will be uniformed day by day, as fast as the uniforms are received at camp.

The statement was made on the highest authority that two regiments of the Ohio national guard will be ordered to Newport News, Va., within the next ten days. One of these regiments will be the Fourteenth.

To Purchase a Warship.

CLEVELAND, May 3.—A movement is on foot among some of the wealthy Jews of Ohio to purchase a warship and present it to the government for use against Spain. Harry Bernstein, a prominent Cleveland Hebrew, received word that three well known Cincinnati Jews will be in the city to discuss the matter. "The Jews all over the world have reason to hate Spain," said Mr. Bernstein, "and while we are not a warlike people, we will gladly fight and give our wealth to see her punished."

Formerly Lived in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, May 3.—Norman Harrington, the American who faced the Spanish mob in Barcelona with the American consul, is a graduate of the Cleveland public schools and Case School of Applied Science in this city. He has many relatives and friends in this city. His wife and children live in Chicago. He is an electrical engineer, and for some time past has been in Europe representing an American electrical company.

MANY VOLUNTEERED.

The Pennsylvania State Militia Nearly All Enlist.

MOUNT GRETTA, Pa., May 3.—Inspection day for the first brigade at Camp Hastings was overshadowed by the enrollment of volunteers for the United States army, and as has often been demonstrated before, the Pennsylvania national guardsmen again showed the stuff of which they are made by nobly responding to the call to duty. The first brigade was mustered and out of 2,680 officers and men who reported on the field 2,241 volunteered to go to war for the two years fixed by the president.

Many of those who did not volunteer include men of old age or known to be unfit physically, musicians and men whose families sorely needed their support and who had been advised by their officers not to volunteer. They numbered 8 officers and 431 men, and those who will soon become United States volunteers numbered 152 regimental and company officers and 2,059 men.

Bancroft Joins the Key West Fleet.

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., May 3.—Commander Clover of the Bancroft asked permission to sail and it was granted. The gunboat then left to join the blockading squadron at Key West. It would seem as if the navy department has picked out the squadron for active work despite the present inactivity, as orders have been issued allowing the ships to take on more men despite the fact that they have a normal complement at present. Men of good morals and excellent physical condition will be enlisted by applying here or at the ships wherever they may be.

Many Persons Killed.

HUMANSVILLE, Mo., May 3.—At Jerico, in Cedar county, 20 miles from this place, a tornado killed 13 persons outright and fatally injured five or six more.

LONDON EXCITED.

The British Seemed Pleased Over the Victory of Our Squadron at Manila.

LONDON, May 3.—In the house of parliament, at the hotels, which are beginning to fill with American tourists, at all the government offices, and particularly at the admiralty, the brilliant defeat of the Spanish fleet by the Asiatic fleet of the United States at the battle of Manila was one great subject talked of.

The United States embassy was the center of interest for all London. There was a continuous line of callers requesting information, the majority being Americans. The American ambassador, Colonel John Hay, is overjoyed at this demonstration of the prowess of the American navy.

The preponderance of sentiment in the British navy seems to be with the Americans throughout, the officers giving many practical proofs of their partiality. International courtesy, however, debarred the high officials from commenting on the result.

The Evening Standard, commenting on the American victory, says: "Every one will hope this prompt and decisive blow to the Spanish forces will lead to an early termination of hostilities, a hope which has been encouraged by the remarkable language of Senor Silveira in the cortes, when he declared the Cuban problem is reduced to a question of honor for Spanish arms."

The Daily Mail, in an editorial on the engagement at Manila, says: "It was, in Nelson's words, not victory, but annihilation, and it proved Commodore Dewey a worthy disciple of the heroic Farragut. It is characteristic of the American race to be generous to the weak, and as the president is averse to useless bloodshed, he will doubtless meet Spain, whose honor is now saved, in a generous spirit."

The Daily Telegraph says: "The mismanagement of the Spanish could hardly have been carried to greater or more amazing lengths. The engagement must have been virtually over before it began. No one anticipated a Spanish victory, but the suddenness and completeness of this total defeat have taken the experts by surprise. One act in the drama is over, and there seems little ground for believing that the next will be unlike it."

PRIVILEGES TO AMERICANS.

Haiti Government Grants Them the Same Rights as Natives.

PORT AU PRINCE, May 3.—The efforts which have been making for 20 years past to induce the Haitian government to accord the same trade and labor rights to Americans as to natives have at last proved successful. An agreement has been arrived at that there shall be no difference in the licenses.

Americans are also admitted to the retailing privilege, heretofore restricted to Haitians.

The United States minister, Mr. W. F. Powell, has insisted with vigor upon the observance of article 5 of the treaty between Haiti and the United States. The affirmative decree will date from September last.

Settled Down to Camp Life.

CHICKAMAUGA NATIONAL PARK, Ga., May 3.—The soldiers at Chickamauga park have settled down to the routine of camp life in earnest. The news of the victory of Admiral Dewey's fleet rather demoralized discipline for a while and the greatest enthusiasm was exhibited among officers and men. The infantry battalion engaged in a sham battle.

More Spanish Ships For Cuba.

LONDON, May 3.—According to a dispatch from Cadiz to The Daily Chronicle it is believed there that orders have been given for a fleet of five vessels to start for Cuba on May 15.

Shafter Assumed Command.

TAMPA, Fla., May 3.—General Shafter assumed command of the troops with General Wade in charge of 11 regiments of infantry and Colonel Cochran in charge of the second division of 10th brigade.

Two Regiments to Be Sent to Newport News—The Examination and Enlistment Will Take a Week or Ten Days. Government Will Issue Arms to Them. New Uniforms Received.

COLUMBUS, May 3.—Major Valery Harvard, detailed by the United States government to examine and muster the national guard at Camp Bushnell, has arrived. He began his task today and expects to finish in a week or ten days.

All day long camp was vocal with the orders of the drill sergeants putting the awkward squads through their paces. In fact, there was hardly a spot in the camp where the sole of a quiet civilian foot could find rest. Wherever one went one found a bunch of wild-eyed yearlings charging at him under the command of a fierce-voiced sergeant or corporal. The result of the hard work is very clearly apparent, however.

The new men are marching well, and, except for lack of uniforms, make a very presentable appearance. Part of the time each day they are given instructions in the manual of arms, and no pains are spared to lick the men into shape as soon as possible.

Major General Axline stated that the government would issue arms to the troops as soon as they are mustered into service. It is anticipated that the new 30-caliber rifle will be issued instead of the old Springfield 45-90. About 400 new uniforms were issued and the new men will be uniformed day by day, as fast as the uniforms are received at camp.

The statement was made on the highest authority that two regiments of the Ohio national guard will be ordered to Newport News, Va., within the next ten days. One of these regiments will be the Fourteenth.

To Purchase a Warship.

CLEVELAND, May 3.—A movement is on foot among some of the wealthy Jews of Ohio to purchase a warship and present it to the government for use against Spain. Harry Bernstein, a prominent Cleveland Hebrew, received word that three well known Cincinnati Jews will be in the city to discuss the matter. "The Jews all over the world have reason to hate Spain," said Mr. Bernstein, "and while we are not a warlike people, we will gladly fight and give our wealth to see her punished."

Formerly Lived in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, May 3.—Norman Harrington, the American who faced the Spanish mob in Barcelona with the American consul, is a graduate of the Cleveland public schools and Case School of Applied Science in this city. He has many relatives and friends in this city. His wife and children live in Chicago. He is an electrical engineer, and for some time past has been in Europe representing an American electrical company.

MANY VOLUNTEERED.

The Pennsylvania State Militia Nearly All Enlist.

MOUNT GRETTA, Pa., May 3.—Inspection day for the first brigade at Camp Hastings was overshadowed by the enrollment of volunteers for the United States army, and as has often been demonstrated before, the Pennsylvania national guardsmen again showed the stuff of which they are made by nobly responding to the call to duty. The first brigade was mustered and out of 2,680 officers and men who reported on the field 2,241 volunteered to go to war for the two years fixed by the president.

Many of those who did not volunteer include men of old age or known to be unfit physically, musicians and men whose families sorely needed their support and who had been advised by their officers not to volunteer. They numbered 8 officers and 431 men, and those who will soon become United States volunteers numbered 152 regimental and company officers and 2,089 men.

Bancroft Joins the Key West Fleet.

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., May 3.—Commander Clover of the Bancroft asked permission to sail and it was granted. The gunboat then left to join the blockading squadron at Key West. It would seem as if the navy department has picked out the squadron for active work despite the present inactivity, as orders have been issued allowing the ships to take on more men despite the fact that they have a normal complement at present. Men of good morals and excellent physical condition will be enlisted by applying here or at the ships wherever they may be.

Many Persons Killed.

HUMANSVILLE, Mo., May 3.—At Jerico, in Cedar county, 20 miles from this place, a tornado killed 13 persons outright and fatally injured five or six more.

STOLE HIS WIFE AWAY

And a Hanover Man Takes the Matter to Court.

ASKS THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS

As a Balm For His Wounded Feelings—A Number of Other Petitions Were Filed In Lisbon This Morning. One Asking Damages For Injuries In a Coal Mine.

LISBON, May 3.—[Special]—Charles S. Yonkey, of Hanover, has sued Elsie Miller for alienating his wife's affections. He says he was married to Grace E. Miller July 1, 1895, and they lived happily together until the defendant interfered in their domestic relations, maliciously persuading her to leave him, which she did. He asks judgment for $3,000.

Nick Pontius, a miner, has sued John S. Apple for $5,000 damages. The plaintiff alleges that on November 10, 1897, he was working in Apple's coal mine when he was injured by a fall of slate, caused by the defendant neglecting to keep the mine in good condition. The parties reside near Elkton.

O. H. Bates against Flora E. Hanna and Jno. P. Hanna is a suit filed today. The plaintiffs seek to recover $255 with interest.

The Wellsville Pioneer Pottery company has sued James Davidson to recover $131.31 for ware furnished him.

In the matter of the estate of David McColla an appeal was taken from probate court to set aside the allowance of $388 for the year's support for the widow. McColla died in Kansas and letters of administration were taken out there. When the debts were paid there was nothing left, but he had some property in this county. The question is whether the year's allowance can be given by the probate judge of this county on ancillary letters of administration.

Another appeal from probate court is in the estate of E. V. Wilhelm. It is on the order of the distribution of proceeds from the sale of real estate to pay the debts of the deceased.

CHICKAMAUGA PARK

THE BOYS IN BLUE TENTING ON THE OLD CAMP GROUND.

General Brooke Prond of the Troops—Says Americans Are the Best Soldiers In the World—Drilling Different Arms of the Service—Ready to March on Short Notice.

The tramp of infantry, the lumbering of artillery caissons and the clattering of cavalry which are to be heard on Chickamauga park at present forcibly call up the ghastly scenes of 1863, when Confederate and Federal met in death grapple and battled until human nature gave way, accelerated by Longstreet's puncturing of the Federal center. Chickamauga is a fitting ground upon which to mobilize the troops of the Union in the conflict which is now ahead of us. Upon this field was fought a battle so desperate and so pertinaciously held by both sides that the sons of the old veterans can well afford to meet and fraternize upon it, for it stands as a record that American manhood is invincible.

"They are a fine body of men," said Adjutant General Sheridan of General Brooke's staff. "Man for man, I think they are equal to five Spaniards. We have been enlisting men between the ages of 18 and 30 as the limit. They had to pass a severe physical examination and were required to be able to read and write. The result is that our army has been graded up until it is of the highest standard. So severe have been our requirements that only one in five applicants could pass, and then the supply of eligible men was above our needs. One recruiting officer in Chicago had 800 eligible names which could not be acted upon because our limit had been reached. From this it will be seen that we have had the pick of men and that the 15,000 men whom you will see here within a few days will be equal to more than five times their number. I may be excused for saying that if a regiment were to lose every commissioned man in its line, the noncommissioned staff from the ranks could lead it through."

A forcible illustration of this was found in the arrival of the second squadron of the Second cavalry from Fort Logan, Colo. No sooner had they tumbled out of the long train which drew up at the rural station than rider and horse were together, and the cavalcade began to wind its way up the slope in good style. Every man had the carriage of an officer. Impatient at their long confinement, the horses champed and reared, and when the main road was reached it needed no spur to put the whole squadron into a lope, which brought it to the brow of the hill overlooking the valley beyond, where tents were to be pitched. One horseman's stirrup became entangled, forcing him to dismount for repairs, thus losing sight of his fellows.

"That won't do in Cuba," said an unloquacious artillery subaltern. "It was by just such a slip that the prince imperial fell into the hands of the Zulus, and from all accounts the Spaniards are just as cruel."

All around are spread tents—whole villages of them—and the activity is such that no loiterers seem to be found. The artillery is in place, with its long guns in trim; the infantry is ready for the march; the cavalry tents in double line, with the horses drawn up behind, all show superb control, even in the disorganization consequent upon their just coming together. Said Major Rafferty, in command of one of the cavalry regiments:

"We are not keeping up with the politics of this thing, but we are ready to do our duty. It is the duty of those above us to point the way, and you can depend upon it that Rafferty's horse will keep in the road."

From the tower on Snodgrass hill the scene below spread out as in a panorama. In every valley almost there nestled its village of tents, while the riding orderlies from one regimental headquarters to another presented an animated scene. As soon as a new regiment arrives and begins to pitch tents extra sentinels are thrown out, and thus the ground begins to be occupied. The headquarters of General Brooke are on a gentle knoll hard by.

"I must say that I am proud of these men," said General Brooke. "I always did believe that Americans made the best soldiers in the world, but as this is the first occasion in years in which so many of them have been brought together, it is the first real opportunity I have had to see them to such good advantage. Our work here is purely military, getting the different arms of the service together and putting them through the routine of army organization in the larger field movements. Beyond this it is obvious that I could say nothing."

It is evident that the regular army organization being perfected here is to serve as a school for the volunteer regiments which are now springing into service in all parts of the country. When they begin to arrive, there will follow the fraternization of the sons of Georgia, and of Maine, of Texas and of California. It is upon the coming of this 125,000 men fresh from the people that the national encampment is hinged. They come not at the command of section, nor in the interest of partisanship, but as the soldiers of that new nation which has thrown off its swaddling clothes and proposes hereafter to be full statured and respected inherently, competent to hold their own and determined to do it whether it pleases foreign nations or not.—P. J. Moraz in Atlanta Constitution.

SIEGE OF HAVANA.

Gomez to Co-operate With American Troops In Case of War.

The Cuban junta in Jacksonville received a very important letter from General Gomez the other day via Key West. While its contents have been guarded very carefully and the main portion sent on to the New York junta's office, it is ascertained that it brings news that Gomez is preparing to co-operate with the United States forces in case of war in an attack upon Havana. Calixto Garcia has passed the trocha, and he and Gomez, with 18,000 troops, are now marching westward and toward Havana.

The insurgents are recruiting in all sections, and from good authority it is ascertained that Gomez promised to have 25,000 to 30,000 troops behind Havana to aid in taking it. The letter added that the Spanish officers there were greatly worried over the news of Gomez's approach and that troops had been called into Havana and that much work was being done in throwing up new earthworks in the rear of the city and otherwise strengthening the fortifications in that section.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

EXPECT AN EASY VICTORY.

The Spaniards Think They Can Whip All America In No Time.

Six American refugees and one Englishman arrived in New York recently on the Ward line steamship Saratoga, which came up from Cuba. The Spanish authorities, the Saratoga's refugees said, made no effort to detain Americans. One of the passengers said:

"The confidence the Spaniards have in their ability to whip the 'Yankee pigs,' as they call the Americans, is positively pitiable. I took dinner with a Spanish officer in a cafe at Santiago de Cuba a short time ago, and he told me in sublime confidence that when the hostilities began he would organize a regiment composed of criminals from the jails at Santiago and the surrounding towns and ask the permission of General Blanco to land them on Long Island. He could probably lay hands on some 2,000 doughty cutthroats. When I laughingly told him that the New York Broadway squad could arrest his men and lock them up as disorderly persons, he wanted me to meet him on the field of honor."—Chicago Record.

MIREX EXPLOSIVE.

Experiments With It Conducted In Chicago With Very Startling Results.

Ten pounds of mirex, the new explosive, proved powerful enough recently to annihilate a large yawlboat off the government breakwater in Chicago. Timbers were splintered and the stones with which the craft was laden were shattered and thrown hundreds of feet by the explosion. W. J. Darley, one of the inventors of the deadly compound, at the suggestion of government officials, conducted the experiment.

Mr. Darley expressed confidence that mirex will be used by the navy department in the event of war with Spain.

"I am particularly desirous of trying the efficiency of mirex on a Spanish ship," he said. "All this work on the government breakwater has been mere play compared to the great game of war. I feel satisfied that the chemical compound far surpasses nitroglycerin in power. If I could get 200 or even 100 pounds of mirex under the Viscaya, I promise you she will be no better than the yawl we demolished in the lake."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HERE IS A REAL HEROINE.

Miss Burdell Wants to Go to the War With the Militia.

Miss Julia Burdell of Brooklyn is the most patriotic woman of America up to date. She does not propose to raise money for stands of colors or for fancy caps or for uniforms for the militiamen. She proposes to get together a band of young women who will go to the front with the boys and work within sound of the cannon's roar and within range of the bullets, if need be.

Miss Burdell's corps will, in case of war, attach itself to some New York regiment, look after the boys' linen, take care of their letters, help the sick and injured and make themselves useful in a hundred ways appreciated best by young men who have known what a woman's care means. Miss Burdell is 30, plucky, pretty, strong and an American clear through.—Chicago Times-Herald.

AS TO PRIVATEERING

VIEWS OF TWO LAW PROFESSORS ON THIS TOPIC.

Professor Moore Says It Is Probable That Both This Country and Spain Would Engage In Privateering In War, but Spain Would Be the Greater Sufferer.

On account of the exceedingly important part privateering has played in our past wars the possibility of its use in case of a war with Spain becomes of interest. James F. Colby, professor of law in Dartmouth college, who recently concluded a course of lectures on international law in the New York law school, in an interview on this subject said in part:

"Prior to 1856 common international usage in maritime warfare allowed the employment of privateers, authorized the confiscation of an enemy's goods found under a neutral flag, exempted from seizure neutral goods, except contraband of war, found under an enemy's flag (though France and Spain acted upon the rule that the enemy's flag tainted and made confiscable the neutral goods), and was alleged to justify paper blockades—that is, those declared but not maintained so as to make ingress and egress impossible. In 1856, at a congress of the nations which had been called to conclude the Crimean war by the treaty of Paris, four rules were proposed: First, that privateering be abolished; second, that enemy's goods, excepting contraband of war, be exempted from capture under a neutral flag; third, that neutral's goods under an enemy's flag be exempt from capture, with the exception of contraband of war; fourth, that paper blockades be invalidated.

"These propositions were accepted by the powers directly concerned, and the so called declaration of Paris is binding upon them. Neither the United States nor Spain, though both were invited to do so, has ever signed this declaration. In the event of war, therefore, between the United States and Spain their respective rights and duties as belligerents on the sea would be determined by the common law of nations as it existed prior to 1856, except so far as that may have been modified by their treaty engagements of 1795 and 1819.

"While the effect of war upon all treaties unfortunately is not free from doubt, and while the construction of the particular treaties of 1795 and 1819 may discover some difference of opinion, it would appear, first, that both the United States and Spain are left free to exercise their international common law right to use privateers against each other, though by the treaty of 1795 each state agrees not to allow its subjects to accept letters of marque from any third state with which the other may be at war, and second, that the United States and Spain not only have agreed to the rule that the flag of the neutral shall cover enemy's property as between themselves, but also have stipulated 'that this shall be so understood with respect to those powers recognizing this principle,' and this, of course, includes all states which have signed the declaration of Paris.

"The right of visit and search, which is the right of a belligerent to stop and examine a neutral merchantman on the high seas to ascertain whether ship or goods are liable to capture, was not modified by the declaration of Paris, and undoubtedly would be exercised by both the United States and Spain, if at war, whenever any neutral merchantman might reasonably be suspected of having as a destination a blockaded port or having as a part of her cargo contraband of war."

Mr. J. E. Moore, professor of international law in Columbia university, speaking in an interview of the attitude of the United States toward the declaration of Paris, said:

"It was near the end of Pierce's administration and when Marcy was secretary of state that the United States was invited to become a party to the declaration, and the invitation was accepted with the reservation that private property, excepting contraband of war and in the case of blockade, should be exempt. This was under consideration by the powers when, upon the inauguration of Buchanan, the whole matter was dropped. After the civil war came, however, the federal government, with the intention of ending the privateering on the Confederate side, offered to accept the terms of the declaration, but the offer was refused. As Spain also was not a party to the terms of the declaration it is probable that privateering would be engaged in by both nations in war."

From a rapid survey of the commerce of the two nations, although that of the United States is by far the more extensive, it would seem assured that Spain would be the greater sufferer from the effects of privateering. The reason lies in the fact that seven-eighths of the commerce of the United States is internal, owing to her unrivaled bodies of inland waters. Out of a total of 30,978 vessels of all sorts flying the American flag 19,803 in 1897 were engaged in coastwise trade, and the greater part of this number is engaged in internal trade, and non-susceptible to privateering. With Spain the case is different.

The well known poem, "Curfew Shall Not Ring To-night," in which a young woman by hanging to the curfew bell saves the life of her lover condemned to be executed at the ringing of the curfew, is only one of a thousand striking instances of how a woman will dare everything for love.

Women are readier to make heroic sacrifices than they are to take the common place, everyday precautions which insure their greatest happiness. Most women are careless about their health. They forget that physical weakness and disease will wreck the fairest chance in life and shut them out completely from happy womanhood and wifehood.

Weak, bilious, dyspeptic women are robbed of their natural attractiveness and capacity. They lose healthy color and energy and ambition. The blood becomes poor and thin and laden with disease-germs.

The true antidote for this condition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It acts directly upon the digestive powers and the liver, creating pure, red, healthy blood free from bilious impurities; it renovates every organ and tissue of the body, building up hard, elastic flesh and muscular strength and imparting nerve power and permanent vitality, which malt extracts do not give.

Mrs. Ella Howell, of Derby, Perry Co., Ind., writes: "In the year of 1894 I was taken with stomach trouble—nervous dyspepsia. There was a coldness in my stomach, and a weight which seemed like a rock. Everything that I ate gave me great pain; I had a bearing down sensation, was swelled across my stomach; had a ridge around my right side, and in a short time I was bloated. I was treated by three of our best physicians but got no relief. I was so weak I could not walk across the room without assistance. Then Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended to me and I got it, and commenced the use of it. I began to improve very fast after the use of a few bottles. The physicians said my disease was leading into pulmonary consumption, and gave me up to die. I thank God that my cure is permanent."

Talk that tells. Talk that's endorsed. Every day talk by people that know. City talk—kidney talk. Do kidneys talk? Well, yes, loud and long. You should learn the kidney language.

Lame back means lame kidneys. A bad back is simply The kidneys talking trouble. Here's East Liverpool talk and kidney talk:

Mrs. Mary A. Hewitt, of St. George street, says: "I read in the Pittsburg Press an account of some one who had been cured of kidney disease in that city by using Doan's Kidney Pills. The fact of such an account being published of one living in almost the same place had a tendency to convince me that there must be some truth in it, and I determined to try them myself. Some years before this I had a very severe attack of rheumatism. For three months I lay helpless, and after that I had trouble with my kidneys. For a year I suffered severely. My back was so bad that it felt as if I had a boil where the kidneys are. I could not bend over, lean back against a chair, or reach up. I could not lie on my back, and about every move I made caused pain. I had taken numerous remedies, but none brought the desired relief. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills did what no other remedy was able to do. I took them regularly for a short time, and found them to be all that the Pittsburg paper stated them to be. I can heartily recommend them. After using them I was rid of the backache and other symptoms of kidney disease, and could not have felt better." Plenty more such testimony as this is being published here in East Liverpool daily. Drop into the W. & W. Pharmacy and ask them what their customers say. They always keep a stock of Doan's Kidney Pills on hand.

Within her boundaries there are no navigable bodies of water which can be compared to our own, and therefore the conclusion is that her trade is mostly external and open to the ravages of privateers. But the glory and gold of old Spain have departed, and nothing but the memory of them remains. The snub nosed galleon of the Spanish main which so appealed to the fancy of Drake and only incidentally to "good Queen Bess" is a myth, and the Spanish ship on the Spanish main of today, while still snub nosed, is usually after a cargo of hides from Uruguay.—New York Sun.

From the tower on Snodgrass hill the scene below spread out as in a panorama. In every valley almost there nestled its village of tents, while the riding orderlies from one regimental headquarters to another presented an animated scene. As soon as a new regiment arrives and begins to pitch tents extra sentinels are thrown out, and thus the ground begins to be occupied. The headquarters of General Brooke are on a gentle knoll hard by.

"I must say that I am proud of these men," said General Brooke. "I always did believe that Americans made the best soldiers in the world, but as this is the first occasion in years in which so many of them have been brought together, it is the first real opportunity I have had to see them to such good advantage. Our work here is purely military, getting the different arms of the service together and putting them through the routine of army organization in the larger field movements. Beyond this it is obvious that I could say nothing."

It is evident that the regular army organization being perfected here is to serve as a school for the volunteer regiments which are now springing into service in all parts of the country. When they begin to arrive, there will follow the fraternization of the sons of Georgia, and of Maine, of Texas and of California. It is upon the coming of this 135,000 men fresh from the people that the importance of an educational encampment is hinged. They come not at the command of section, nor in the interest of partisanship, but as the soldiers of that new nation which has thrown off its swaddling clothes and proposes hereafter to be full statured and respected inherently, competent to hold their own and determined to do it whether it pleases foreign nations or not.—P. J. Moran in Atlanta Constitution.

SIEGE OF HAVANA.

Gomez to Co-operate With American Troops In Case of War.

The Cuban junta in Jacksonville received a very important letter from General Gomez the other day via Key West. While its contents have been guarded very carefully and the main portion sent on to the New York junta's office, it is ascertained that it brings news that Gomez is preparing to co-operate with the United States forces in case of war in an attack upon Havana. Calixto Garcia has passed the trocha, and he and Gomez, with 18,000 troops, are now marching westward and toward Havana.

The insurgents are recruiting in all sections, and from good authority it is ascertained that Gomez promised to have 25,000 to 30,000 troops behind Havana to aid in taking it. The letter added that the Spanish officers there were greatly worried over the news of Gomez's approach and that troops had been called into Havana and that much work was being done in throwing up new earthworks in the rear of the city and otherwise strengthening the forts in that section.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

EXPECT AN EASY VICTORY.

The Spaniards Think They Can Whip All America In No Time.

Six American refugees and one Englishman arrived in New York recently on the Ward line steamship Saratoga, which came up from Cuba. The Spanish authorities, the Saratoga's refugees said, made no effort to detain Americans. One of the passengers said:

"The confidence the Spaniards have in their ability to whip the 'Yankee pigs,' as they call the Americans, is positively pitiable. I took dinner with a Spanish officer in a cafe at Santiago de Cuba a short time ago, and he told me in sublime confidence that when the hostilities began he would organize a regiment composed of criminals from the jails at Santiago and the surrounding towns and ask the permission of General Blanco to land them on Long Island. He could probably lay hands on some 2,000 doughty cutthroats. When I laughingly told him that the New York Broadway squad could arrest his men and lock them up as disorderly persons, he wanted me to meet him on the field of honor."—Chicago Record.

MIREX EXPLOSIVE.

Experiments With It Conducted In Chicago With Very Startling Results.

Ten pounds of mirex, the new explosive, proved powerful enough recently to annihilate a large yawlboat off the government breakwater in Chicago. Timbers were splintered and the stones with which the craft was laden were shattered and thrown hundreds of feet by the explosion. W. J. Darley, one of the inventors of the deadly compound, at the suggestion of government officials, conducted the experiment.

Mr. Darley expressed confidence that mirex will be used by the navy department in the event of war with Spain.

"I am particularly desirous of trying the efficiency of mirex on a Spanish ship," he said. "All this work on the government breakwater has been mere play compared to the great game of war. I feel satisfied that the chemical compound far surpasses nitroglycerin in power. If I could get 200 or even 100 pounds of mirex under the Viscaya, I promise you she will be no better than the yawl we demolished in the lake."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

HERE IS A REAL HEROINE.

Miss Burdell Wants to Go to the War With the Militia.

Miss Julia Burdell of Brooklyn is the most patriotic woman of America up to date. She does not propose to raise money for stands of colors or for fancy caps or for uniforms for the militiamen. She proposes to get together a band of young women who will go to the front with the boys and work within sound of the cannon's roar and within range of the bullets, if need be.

Miss Burdell's corps will, in case of war, attach itself to some New York regiment, look after the boys' linen, take care of their letters, help the sick and injured and make themselves useful in a hundred ways appreciated best by young men who have known what a woman's care means. Miss Burdell is 36, plucky, pretty, strong and an American clear through.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Birds Used In Millinery.

The Millinery Trade Review says that "not 10 per cent of the birds or parts of birds used in millinery are song birds or parts of song birds, but 75 per cent are imported from China and Japan and are killed for their destructiveness, and the balance are feathers of birds used for food."

An Edifying Spectacle.

The spectacle of those 600 Indians in their native costumes, as they are now being muleteers from orag to crag of the Pyrenees would be a sight to rouse the special amusement of the gods themselves.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

AS TO PRIVATEERING

VIEWS OF TWO LAW PROFESSORS ON THIS TOPIC.

Professor Moore Says It Is Probable That Both This Country and Spain Would Engage In Privateering In War, but Spain Would Be the Greater Sufferer.

On account of the exceedingly important part privateering has played in our past wars the possibility of its use in case of a war with Spain becomes of interest. James F. Colby, professor of law in Dartmouth college, who recently concluded a course of lectures on international law in the New York Law school, in an interview on this subject said in part:

"Prior to 1856 common international usage in maritime warfare allowed the employment of privateers, authorized the confiscation of an enemy's goods found under a neutral flag, exempted from seizure neutral goods, except contraband of war, found under an enemy's flag (though France and Spain acted upon the rule that the enemy's flag tainted and made confiscable the neutral goods), and was alleged to justify paper blockades—that is, those declared but not maintained so as to make ingress and egress impossible. In 1856, at a congress of the nations which had been called to conclude the Crimean war by the treaty of Paris, four rules were proposed: First, that privateering be abolished; second, that enemy's goods, excepting contraband of war, be exempted from capture under a neutral flag; third, that neutral's goods under an enemy's flag be exempt from capture, with the exception of contraband of war; fourth, that paper blockades be invalidated.

"These propositions were accepted by the powers directly concerned, and the so called declaration of Paris is binding upon them. Neither the United States nor Spain, though both were invited to do so, has ever signed this declaration. In the event of war, therefore, between the United States and Spain their respective rights and duties as belligerents on the sea would be determined by the common law of nations as it existed prior to 1856, except so far as that may have been modified by their treaty engagements of 1795 and 1819.

"While the effect of war upon all treaties unfortunately is not free from doubt, and while the construction of the particular treaties of 1795 and 1819 may discover some difference of opinion, it would appear, first, that both the United States and Spain are left free to exercise their international common law right to use privateers against each other, though by the treaty of 1795 each state agrees not to allow its subjects to accept letters of marque from any third state with which the other may be at war, and, second, that the United States and Spain not only have agreed to the rule that the flag of the neutral shall cover enemy's property as between themselves, but also have stipulated that this shall be so understood with respect to those powers recognizing this principle, and this, of course, includes all states which have signed the declaration of Paris.

"The right of visit and search, which is the right of a belligerent to stop and examine a neutral merchantman on the high seas to ascertain whether ship or goods are liable to capture, was not modified by the declaration of Paris, and undoubtedly would be exercised by both the United States and Spain, if at war, whenever any neutral merchantman might reasonably be suspected of having as a destination a blockaded port or having as a part of her cargo contraband of war."

Mr. J. B. Moore, professor of international law in Columbia university, speaking in an interview of the attitude of the United States toward the declaration of Paris, said:

"It was near the end of Pierce's administration and when Marcy was secretary of state that the United States was invited to become a party to the declaration, and the invitation was accepted with the reservation that private property, excepting contraband of war and in the case of blockade, should be exempt. This was under consideration by the powers when, upon the inauguration of Buchanan, the whole matter was dropped. After the civil war came, however, the federal government, with the intention of ending the privateering on the Confederate side, offered to accept the terms of the declaration, but the offer was refused. As Spain also was not a party to the terms of the declaration it is probable that privateering would be engaged in by both nations in war."

From a rapid survey of the commerce of the two nations, although that of the United States is by far the more extensive, it would seem assured that Spain would be the greater sufferer from the effects of privateering. The reason lies in the fact that seven-eighths of the commerce of the United States is internal, owing to her unrivaled bodies of inland waters. Out of a total of 20,975 vessels of all sorts flying the American flag 19,802 in 1897 were engaged in inland trade, and the greater part of this number is engaged in internal trade, and nonsusceptible to privateering.

With Spain the case is different.

The well known poem, "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight," in which a young woman by hanging to the curfew bell saves the life of her lover condemned to be executed at the ringing of the curfew, is only one of a thousand striking instances of how a woman will dare everything for love.

Women are readier to make heroic sacrifices than they are to take the commonplace, everyday precautions which insure their greatest happiness. Most women are careless about their health. They forget that physical weakness and disease will wreck the fairest chance in life and shut them out completely from happy womanhood and wifehood.

Weak, bilious, dyspeptic women are robbed of their natural attractiveness and capacity. They lose healthy color and energy and ambition. The blood becomes poor and thin and laden with disease germs. The true antidote for this condition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It acts directly upon the digestive powers and the liver, creating pure, red, healthy blood free from bilious impurities; it renovates every organ and tissue of the body, building up hard, elastic flesh and muscular strength and imparting nerve power and permanent vitality, which malt extracts do not give.

Mrs. Ella Howell, of Derby, Perry Co., Ind., writes: "In the year of 1894 I was taken with stomach trouble—nervous dyspepsia. There was a coldness in my stomach, and a weight which seemed like a rock. Everything that I ate gave me great pain; I had a bearing down sensation; was swelled across my stomach; had a ridge around my right side, and in a short time I was bloated. I was treated by three of our best physicians but got no relief. I was so weak I could not walk across the room without assistance. Then Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was recommended to me and I got it, and commenced the use of it. I began to improve very fast after the use of a few bottles. The physicians said my disease was leading into pulmonary consumption, and gave me up to die. I thank God that my cure is permanent."

IT'S ALL TALK.

Yes, But It's East Liverpool Talk. The kind That Tells in East Liverpool.

Talk that tells. Talk that's endorsed. Every day talk by people that know. City talk—kidney talk. Do kidneys talk? Well, yes, loud and long. You should learn the kidney language. Lame back means lame kidneys. A bad back is simply The kidneys talking trouble. Here's East Liverpool talk and kidney talk:

Mrs. Mary A. Hewitt, of St. George street, says: "I read in the Pittsburg Press an account of some one who had been cured of kidney disease in that city by using Doan's Kidney Pills. The fact of such an account being published of one living in almost the same place had a tendency to convince me that there must be some truth in it, and I determined to try them myself. Some years before this I had a very severe attack of rheumatism. For three months I lay helpless, and after that I had trouble with my kidneys. For a year I suffered severely. My back was so bad that it felt as if I had a boil where the kidneys are. I could not bend over, lean back against a chair, or reach up. I could not lie on my back, and about every move I made caused pain. I had taken numerous remedies, but none brought the desired relief. Well, Doan's Kidney Pills did what no other remedy was able to do. I took them regularly for a short time, and found them to be all that the Pittsburg paper stated them to be. I can heartily recommend them. After using them I was rid of the backache and other symptoms of kidney disease, and could not have felt better." Plenty more such testimony as this is being published here in East Liverpool daily. Drop into the W. & W. Pharmacy and ask them what their customers say. They always keep a stock of Doan's Kidney Pills on hand.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

Within her boundaries there are no navigable bodies of water which can be compared to our own, and therefore the conclusion is that her trade is mostly external and open to the ravages of privateers. But the glory and gold of old Spain have departed, and nothing but the memory of them remains. The snub nosed galleon of the Spanish main which so appealed to the fancy of Drake and only incidentally to "good Queen Bess" is a myth, and the Spanish ship on the Spanish main of today, while still snub nosed, is usually after a cargo of hides from Uruguay.—New York Sun.

FOR ONE MORE YEAR

Professor Rayman Re-elected Superintendent.

NO INCREASE IN THE SALARY

Mr. Murphy Suggested That He Be Chosen For Two Years at $1,900, but Doctor Williams Was Opposed, and the Motion Went No Farther—Business of the Board.

The new board of education held their first regular meeting in the Central building last night with Members Peach, Hill, Murphy, Vodrey Norris and Williams present. The meeting was opened by scripture reading and prayer by Mr. Murphy. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The matter of paying the judges and clerks of the last election was brought up, and Clerk Norris stated that he had written Charles Kinney, secretary of state, relative to the matter, and the reply received stated that judges and clerks were allowed but $3 a day for serving at an election and not each separate election. The matter was laid aside.

The clerk reported he had received several applications from teachers, and was ordered to dispose of each by writing each one that if they wanted a job they had best appear before the board of examiners.

The board then ordered the clerk to purchase a new blank warrant book.

"There is no part of our tax that should be paid more cheerfully than our school tax" said Member Hill. This caused some little discussion as to how much money would be needed for the running of the schools for next year. The clerk will make a report at the next meeting. Together with this, the matter of additional school room was talked of but no final action was taken.

Member Peach asked what had been done in the matter of collecting money from the owners of shanty boats, but was informed that no action had been taken.

President Vodrey wanted to know whether the board would provide for the wants of the scholars in new buildings.

"We are required to do this," said Mr. Murphy.

The clerk was asked to notify the various architects to submit plans for a four room brick building to be built on the Northside. The sketches are to be received and presented at the next meeting.

President Vodrey then appointed the following members to look after the various buildings: Sixth street building, Doctor Williams; East End, Thomas Fisher; Third street, G. C. Murphy; Central, Doctor Norris and W. B. Hill; Gardendale and Trentvale, W. B. Hill; West End, Harry Peach; Sheridan avenue, Doctor Norris; Bradshaw, and Grant street, O. C. Vodrey.

Professor Rayman then read his report for the month ending April 22. The report read as follows:

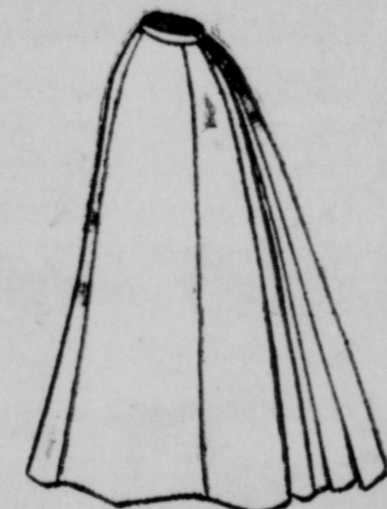

New enrollment, males, 26, females, 20; entire enrollment, males, 1,208, females, 1,246; monthly enrollment, males, 1,011, females, 1,009, a decrease of about 100; re-enrollment, No. 1, males, 15, females, 24; re-enrollment, No. 2, males, 8, females, 3; average daily attendance, males, 856, females, 866; per cent attendance, males 92, females 90; promoted 10, demoted 1; pupils absent, males 680, females 701; quite a decrease in the absentees over the report of March; pupils withdrawn, males 60, females 60; pupils tardy, males 111, females 15; cases of truancy, males 14, females none; corporal punishment 67; last month 53 pupils were punished; visits by patrons, males 9, females 25; no visits by the board were noted; cases of sickness, males 251, females 270. Last month 230 males and 400 females were reported sick. Visits by superintendent 103; deaths 2. Last month there was 1 death. The deaths were scholars attending the East End and Sixth street schools.

Mr. Rayman recommended the following for graduation: John Wallace, William Robinson, Walter George, Homer Swift, Edna Cook, Lena Coventry, Cora Dawson, Emma Southall and Daisy Shenkle. The diplomas have been ordered and are expected to arrive not later than next week.

Mr. Murphy asked that Professor Rayman be selected for a term of two years at a salary of $1900 a year. This increase in salary was asked because more work was attached to the position.

Mr. Williams said: "I am not in favor of employing Professor Rayman or any other person to the position for a term of more than one year at a time. I believe he will do better work when elected to the position for one year."

the position. As for the $1,900, if the other members want the increase I am satisfied."

Mr. Murphy said: "I think it is nothing more than right that we increase his salary to show our appreciation for the good work he has done while here. He has been faithful in all his work, and I would like to see the increase."

Doctor Williams then moved that Professor Rayman be re-elected for one year at a salary of $1,800. He was elected for one year without a dissenting vote.

Member Peach told the board the West End trestle was being built on part of the property of the West End school. Members Peach and Hill were appointed to look after the matter.

The clerk was instructed to pay the bond coupons when due next month. They will amount to about $1,250.

The meeting then adjourned after appointing Member Hill, Clerk Norris and Professor Rayman as a committee on courses of study.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MAY 3.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.

ADMIRAL DEWEY seems to be playing a fast game on the other side of the world.

COUNCIL and Mayor Bough should come together on the police question. Two policemen cannot guard East Liverpool. Let the full quota be appointed and confirmed at once.

WEYLER wants to come to America, and there are a great many people who want him to come, anyone of whom will guarantee his political enemies that they will never be annoyed by his presence again, that is if he has nerve sufficient to face the average American.

THE election of Superintendent Rayman for another year cannot but be a popular action on the part of the board of education. The gentleman has filled the duties of his position so well that the public schools have for months shown the presence of an intelligent governing power.

It is gratifying to learn that the street sweeper will soon be ready for service and the city will be kept in the best possible condition. With the ordinance against throwing waste paper in the streets rigidly enforced and a judicious use of the sweeper there is no reason why anyone should complain of dirty streets.

THE election of a Republican house of representatives next fall will be an endorsement of the policy of President McKinley, and who is there today who does not believe the president has followed a wise, conservative course? He did not rush into conflict with Spain until fully convinced that his army and navy were prepared to meet the haughty Dons.

THE MUDDLE.

It is sincerely hoped that council and Mayor Bough will find some basis on which they can settle their differences. The city at present has no other protection than two officers and Chief Johnson when it was intended that four roundsmen should be on duty. It is not fair by the people that this condition should be permitted to go on. Settle it and settle it quickly. Child's play is never relished, particularly when it inconveniences the public.

A SUCCESSION OF VICTORIES.

There is no reason to believe that Spain will have opportunity to rejoice during the Cuban war. From present indications it will be simply a succession of American victories. We have the men, the money and the ships, and what is most valuable we have that indomitable spirit which has so often blessed the American arms with success. Spain may put up a stubborn fight, and its people may sacrifice much before they relinquish their hold upon the island of Cuba, but the result will be the same whether the war lasts three months or three years. The conquering army and navy of this great nation will sweep away all opposition, and with shouts of triumph plant the Stars and Stripes where they will mean liberty and good government for a down-trodden people.

Travelers Have Gone.

No less than three salesmen for as many potteries left yesterday afternoon and this morning for their May trips. George Clark, for the Laughlin pottery, has gone east; W. H. Dedrick, of Mc Nicol's, southwest, and J. T. McClain, for the French China Co., southeast.

THE MEASLES IN CAMP

Private McKinnon Is In the Hospital.

ONE MAN WAS SENT HOME

Because He Could Not Stand the Physical Examination--Recruits Are Needed and Lieutenant Anderson May Come Home For Them This Week.

Measles has appeared in Camp Bushnell at Columbus, and as usual Company E has a place in the sensation, one of its members being confined in the hospital suffering from the malady.

The afflicted one is Private Orville McKinnon. He was not in the best of health last Sunday, and when he reported to Surgeon Hobbs that gentleman sent him to the hospital. A careful examination showed symptoms of measles, and yesterday his face showed that there was no longer any doubt. A number of other soldiers had been afflicted, and a quarantine camp was located, details from the Eighth and Fifth regiments being chosen to look after the matter. Strict orders have been issued to govern the cases, and the boys will be cared for as well as if they were in their beds at home. There is no danger of the disease becoming epidemic, and every care is being taken to prevent any serious trouble. Beyond these few cases the health of the camp is excellent, and the Liverpool boys are well.

Clarence Green arrived in the city this morning from Columbus. Until yesterday afternoon he was a member of Company E, but he became ill, and the surgeons, finding that he would not pass the rigid physical examination demanded by the government officers before the troops are mustered in, advised that he be discharged at once. He was provided with transportation to this place, and taken through the lines to the Union station by Lieutenant Anderson who saw him started on his way home.

It was announced in camp yesterday afternoon that recruits would likely be needed, and Lieutenant Anderson would probably be sent home to select a few from the many who offered themselves to Captain Hill before the command marched away. Only the best available material will be chosen, as the orders provide for good men, morally and physically.

Captain Hill served yesterday as officer of the day, and acquitted himself well. There was no unusual happening to mar the pleasure of the day.

Among the most active men in the division is Sergeant Hanley. His position places him near to officers and men, and he seldom allows time to pass without getting hard work from the company. The boys are being well drilled and are attaining a degree of efficiency which all appreciate. An incident of Sergeant Hanley's desire to drill and keep even with the times is related.

The other evening some kind friend of the company on the other side of the street presented them with a box of cigars. The sergeant ordered the men to fall in facing Company E, and then passed along the box. Each man took out a cigar and the company was dismissed. Sergeant Hanley observed the operation closely, and when it was ended called out in loud and clear tones for Company E to fall in. The boys hastily sought their places, and when all were in line, with every coat buttoned and every cap on straight, he disappeared. In a moment he returned, and without a smile on his face started a box of matches down the line. Then all discipline fled. The boys fairly howled. They appreciated the joke, but chased the sergeant to the very guard line for they too had expected a box of cigars.

EVERYBODY GIVES

To the Fund That Will Help the Families of Soldiers.

The parties who are collecting subscriptions to care for the families of Company E while they are away, are meeting with success. Yesterday in a very short time over $25 was collected, and those in charge expect to swell the fund to $75 before this evening.

Everybody who has been asked to donate has responded liberally, and the committees have no doubt that they will be able to collect enough money to relieve the wants of every family.

Loaded a Big Car.

The Sebring company this morning loaded the largest car of ware ever sent from this place. It was sent west. The car, a new one, is owned by the Chicago and Northwestern road, is 50 feet long and has a capacity of 50,000 pounds. It is several feet higher than the ordinary freight cars, and was loaded to its fullest capacity.

IN COURT.

Squires Disposed of a Number of Cases.

George Baumberger has entered suit against Daniel Davis & Co., for $20.25. The case will be heard Thursday by Squire Manley.

Con Cronin has entered a forcible detention action in the court of Squire Hill, against P. M. Beatty. It will be heard Thursday.

A. J. Hilbert & Co. this morning were given judgment in the court of Squire Hill, against Joseph P. Conner, for $7.50.

The B. & R. liniment company received judgment against the same party for $9.50.

REMEMBERING THE BOYS.

F. A. Sebring Sent Them a Few Boxes of Cigars.

Among the East Liverpool men who have been closely following the fortunes of Company E is F. A. Sebring, of the Sebring Pottery company, and last evening he happened to think the boys could enjoy a cigar or two, even if they were soldiers.

He lost no time in putting the plan into execution, and there are now on their way to Columbus a neatly sealed package of four boxes of as good cigars as Mr. Sebring could find in East Liverpool.

NEXT SUNDAY

A Great Many Liverpool People Will Go to Columbus.

Agent Adam Hill last evening received instructions from the passenger department of the Pennsylvania company to announce that an excursion would be run from this place to Columbus next Sunday.

The special train will leave the station at 5:05 in the morning, and returning will leave Columbus at 6 in the evening. The rate for the round trip has been placed at $2.

Arrangements Not Completed.

The arrangements for the funeral of Mary E. Lequear, wife of William Lequear, who died by hanging yesterday morning, have not as yet been completed, except that services will be held tomorrow and the interment will be made in Spring Grove cemetery. Some of the relatives desire services to be held in the Methodist Protestant church and others want a home service. It is this part that has not yet been arranged.

Some New Residents.

Yesterday afternoon at the freight depot five movings were handled. Four of them were received and one was sent out. They were handled in the order named:

Frank Collins, from Canal Dover; Charles Webster, from Louisville, O.; John Weaver, from Canton, and Frank Carlin, from Martin's Ferry. The effects of William E. Boulton were sent to Carrollton.

Attending a Meeting.

Hon. David Boyce left this morning for Alliance where he attended a joint meeting of the trustees and commissioners of the Fairmount Children's home.

This is the first meeting Mr. Boyce has attended for over three months, and at the home the officials gave him a cordial reception.

Y. M. C. A. Cycle Show opens tonight.

Two Women Disagreed.

Last evening the tenants of a prominent uptown business block were treated to a scene not on the bills.

Two well known women engaged in a wordy war which ended by one of them striking the other and knocking her down. Friends interfered and separated the parties before any of them were hurt.

Monte Cristo Tonight.

The Carrie Stanley-Burns dramatic company last evening at the Grand presented "That Klondike Claim" to a large audience. Miss Stanley is a native of East Liverpool, and was presented with a handsome basket of flowers by her numerous admirers in this city. Tonight the company will play "Monte Cristo."

Settling Truancy Cases.

Truant Officer Beardmore has a number of cases on his hands, but will not enter suit as it is thought best to try and settle the cases without taking them into court.

Y. M. C. A. Cycle Show opens tonight.

The Wheelmen and the Tiger.

"It was close here," said the opium planter, "that they caught a tiger credited with having done to death 200 natives. Only last week while out for a walk I saw a tiger leisurely pass across the road. Are you likely to be attacked? Well, I don't know. You may and may not, but I rather think a bicycle would frighten a tiger."

Of course we said it would be rather nice to see a tiger, that it would provide an appreciated adventurous fillip. But, as a matter of fact, we regretted having talked determinedly about the absolute necessity of getting away with the moonrise. We tried to shake our host's convictions that it was at night tigers were on the prowl. But he would not accommodate us.

Maybe, we conjectured, the animals keep close to the roadway, watching for victims. So as our Rovers went spinning along in the mellow moonlight eyes were strained ahead for any prowling object. Once there was a quick steadying down of pace. There was some beast running along in the shade. It wasn't big enough for a camel, it was too big for a dog, so it must be a tiger. Never a word was said. Each pretended not to notice anything. Still there was an affinity of funk. "Now, I wonder what brute that is?" one of us at last asked in a pretended don't care voice. "Oh, nothing particular—hyena or something," was the reply. All the while the animal was behaving in a distinctly mysterious way. We could see its dark form in the gloom. It was traveling ahead at a leisurely pace, occasionally rustling the branches. We settled down to a dead crawl in its wake. Suddenly the brute strayed upon a patch of moonlight. It was a poor little insignificant donkey.—Travel.

An Argument.

"No, sir," said the clergyman who was being criticised for not treating current questions with more emphasis. "I decline to become an advocate on any side of the question you suggest."

"But a number of people expect it of you."

"My dear sir, my mission is to help prepare people for life in the next world, is it not?"

"Certainly."

"Well, you cannot possibly convince me that there is any politics in heaven."

The Popular Taste.

"How did Professor Dryly happen to have such an immense audience last night?"

"The local papers got mixed, and he appeared in the hall where it was announced that a vaudeville show would be given."—Detroit Free Press.

DEVOTION OF A MOTHER.

Many Watched Her as She Marched Beside Her Soldier Son.

A sight for Spartan eyes was witnessed recently in Chicago when the first detachment of naval recruits from Chicago and Milwaukee marched down the smooth asphalt of Jackson boulevard to the Pennsylvania depot, en route for New York, to enter active service. Notwithstanding that the escort of 500 bluejackets of the Illinois naval reserve were showing a faultless drill, everybody watched one figure in black.

Right among the marching recruits and keeping close alongside of a strapping young fellow in a light overcoat, who was carrying a small traveling grip, was a woman of fully 60 years. She was dressed in mourning, and many a hurrah was hushed as people caught the first glimpse apparently of a widowed, gray haired mother personally taking her son into the rank and file of the boys in blue. She kept an arm around him and her head bowed, noticing no one else. Perhaps 20 other women and girls—mothers, wives and sweethearts—walked with the recruits, but the attention of the spectators followed only the lone woman in black till she was lost in the distance.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Curious Legal Decision.

The following anecdote is sent by a Kentucky correspondent, who says it is the exact truth:

"A young man who had not found it convenient to pay a tailor's bill was brought up on a creditor's bill by the cruel tailor before a very kind hearted vice chancellor, who liked the youth. He was handsomely dressed and wore a costly diamond stud in his shirt bosom, but declared under oath that he had no property except his wearing apparel. The tailor's lawyer claimed that a diamond stud was not an article of exempt apparel and asked for its surrender, but the judge ruled that the diamond button held the parts of the shirt together and its removal would lead to indecent exposure of the person. Then the lawyer urged that the shirt was of a new kind which buttoned in the back, but the judge met this by saying: 'The presumption of the law is that shirts button in front, and the court does not judicially know that shirts ever button in the back. The court will not require the defendant to submit to an examination to rebut the presumption.' And so the diamond remained in the bosom which cherished it."

Food, drink and tobacco cost the people of New York city $1,000,000 and over per day.

SPAIN WILL FIGHT

The Cabinet Crisis Has Been Averted,
AND THE PEOPLE ARE READY

To Do Battle Against the Americans--The Whole Naval Force Will Be Collected For a Demonstration In Cuban Waters. Spanish Have Evacuated Bayamo--London Does Not Expect a Long War--New British Ambassador Promised.

LONDON, May 3.—[Special]—The excitement attending the battle of Manila has in a measure died away, but there was for a time today much speculation as to whether the Spanish people would desire to continue the conflict, or would rise against the government and demand a change of ministry.

An end was put to this speculation this morning when a special from Madrid announced that there was no idea of surrender there. The people have ceased to condemn the government, and some enthusiasm has been created by the hard fighting at Manila. A cabinet crisis has been averted, and preparations for active operations against the Americans are being made.

Additional advices say that Spain intends to throw her whole naval strength into one supreme effort to crush the American fleet in Cuban waters. The ministry will not listen to intervention on the part of the powers until this engagement has been fought.

The fleet is to be collected as rapidly as possible, and will meet Admiral Sampson's squadron within two weeks. There is no denying the weakness of Spain's naval force, and many important points must be left unprotected if the plan to fight off the Cuban coast is carried out.

ANOTHER PRIZE.

It Was Brought In This Morning by the Castine.

NEW YORK, May 3.—[Special]—There are only a few Spanish merchantmen left in these waters, but what few there are being found by the American fleet.

The gunboat Castine this morning brought in its first prize, in the schooner Pao. She was captured without a struggle.

DEWEY'S PROMOTION.

He Will Soon Be an Admiral in Earnest.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—[Special]—Secretary Long made the statement today that Commander Dewey would be made acting admiral, and later would be nominated rear admiral.

The officer will also get a vote of thanks from congress.

NOTHING OFFICIAL.

Admiral Dewey Has Not Made His Report.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—[Special]—Up to noon today Admiral Dewey had sent no report of the battle of Manila to Washington. No official notification of the battle has been received here. There are a number of stories from English and Spanish sources, but the government is anxiously awaiting Admiral Dewey's report. It is believed that the damage sustained by the Spanish fleet is much greater than to this time announced.

NOT LONG.

London Believes the War Will Soon End.

LONDON, May 3.—[Special]—The stock exchange interprets the latest news as meaning that the American-Spanish war will not last long.

NEW BRIDGE OFFICERS

Were Elected at the Stockholder's Meeting.

HON. S. P. WHITE PRESIDENT

J. E. McDonald Returned to the Board of Directors—John Shrader's Name Not In the List—Pittsburg Man Made Secretary-Treasurer.

The new stockholders of the East Liverpool Bridge company held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and when their business was transacted a new list of officers had been placed in charge of the company's business.

It will be remembered that a number of claims against the company were satisfied a few weeks ago when John Shrader paid them in stock and bonds. These new stockholders had not a word to say in the management of the concern, but a few weeks ago they determined to hold a meeting. It was accordingly announced in the Cumberland and Wheeling papers that the company would meet in the toll office at the West Virginia end of the bridge yesterday afternoon. The fact was not generally known in this city, and nothing was said about it by the foreign stockholders who came to town yesterday. Not until the meeting was over did anyone say that the company had taken decided action.

The principal business before the meeting was the election of officers. Hon. S. P. White, of Beaver Falls, was chosen president. Mr. White is also receiver for the West Virginia end of the property, and his elevation to the position of president greatly simplifies matters.

W. E. Frick, western agent of the Roebling Sons company, of Trenton, who had a claim against the bridge, was elected secretary-treasurer. Three new directors were also chosen, among them being J. E. McDonald who was at one time president of the company. John Shrader, who has always had a prominent place among the officials of the company, was not chosen to any office.

Parties who were present at the meeting refuse to give out any further details, but say that it was decided not to interfere with the receivers at present, but to allow them to collect toll under the supervision of the court.

The movement is, however, the first toward placing the business of the company on a sound basis, taking the business out of the hands of the receivers and pushing matters on the other side of the river.

MR. SHRADER'S VIEW.

He Thinks the Troubles of the Bridge Company Almost Ended.

John Shrader, of Chester formerly, connected with the bridge company, was seen by a reporter this morning and said:

"All the various troubles with the bridge company and the people have been settled with the exception of the case now in the Cleveland courts against the First National bank. This case, I expect, will be settled this month, and then the bridge will be back in its old hands."

When asked if he would have the same old force on the bridge after all matters had been settled he refused to talk. He spent the day in Pittsburg in consultation with his attorneys.

Dogs Meet the Train.

The oriental express, the famous train from Paris to Constantinople, arrives at the Turkish capital three times a week at a certain hour in the afternoon. When the train comes in, says an exchange, there are always many dogs ready to receive it. Before the passengers have had time to get out the dogs jump into the carriages and search everywhere under the seats and in corners for the scraps of luncheon left by the passengers, and when they have found all the pieces they go away. The remarkable thing is that they never come at any time except when the oriental express is due; that they never make a mistake in the day, and always remember that between Friday and Monday there are two days and not one. They pay no attention to local trains, because little or no food is left in them owing to the short rides the passengers take. Exactly this same knowledge of the time table and of the difference between local and long distance trains has been noticed at the station of the Asiatic railways in Scutari, across the Bosphorus.

The services at the First Baptist church in Indianapolis the other night were opened by a bugle call. Rev. Thomas J. Villers preached a sermon on "Cuba and the American Flag." The walls and ceiling of the church were draped with the union jack and the American and Cuban flags. The church was packed with people and 500 were unable to enter. The preacher's every sentence was infused with the spirit of patriotism and at the climax the congregation cheered wildly.

At the words, "When the American flag and union jack are joined the combination can never be beaten," the congregation rose to its feet and the building shook with cheers and hand clapping. Old gray headed churchmen started the singing of "America," and they were joined by the great congregation. The services closed with the playing of Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

SPAIN WILL FIGHT

The Cabinet Crisis Has Been Averted,

AND THE PEOPLE ARE READY

To Do Battle Against the Americans--The Whole Naval Force Will Be Collected For a Demonstration In Cuban Waters. Spanish Have Evacuated Bayamo--London Does Not Expect a Long War--New British Ambassador Promised.

LONDON, May 3.—[Special]—The excitement attending the battle of Manila has in a measure died away, but there was for a time today much speculation as to whether the Spanish people would desire to continue the conflict, or would rise against the government and demand a change of ministry.

An end was put to this speculation this morning when a special from Madrid announced that there was no idea of surrender there. The people have ceased to condemn the government, and some enthusiasm has been created by the hard fighting at Manila. A cabinet crisis has been averted, and preparations for active operations against the Americans are being made.

Additional advices say that Spain intends to throw her whole naval strength into one supreme effort to crush the American fleet in Cuban waters. The ministry will not listen to intervention on the part of the powers until this engagement has been fought.

The fleet is to be collected as rapidly as possible, and will meet Admiral Sampson's squadron within two weeks. There is no denying the weakness of Spain's naval force, and many important points must be left unprotected if the plan to fight off the Cuban coast is carried out.

ANOTHER PRIZE.

It Was Brought In This Morning by the Castine.

NEW YORK, May 3.—[Special]—There are only a few Spanish merchantmen left in these waters, but what few there are are being found by the American fleet.

The gunboat Castine this morning brought in its first prize, in the schooner Pao. She was captured without a struggle.

Admiral Dewey Has Not Made His Report.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—[Special]—Up to noon today Admiral Dewey had sent no report of the battle of Manila to Washington. No official notification of the battle has been received here. There are a number of stories from English and Spanish sources, but the government is anxiously awaiting Admiral Dewey's report. It is believed that the damage sustained by the Spanish fleet is much greater than to this time announced.

TO IMPROVE ONE ROAD

Council Will Not Spend All the Money

VOTED AT THE LAST ELECTION

It Is Believed That the Piking of One Roadway Will Teach an Important Lesson, and There Is No Desire to Have a Number of Streets Torn Up at One Time.

At the next meeting of council the question of improving the roads leading out of the city will be discussed.

It is not thought that council will decide to offer for sale the $30,000 worth of bonds, but only a portion of them, as it would be impossible to complete the improvements this year should work be commenced on all the roads.

Many of the members will advocate the improvement of the most important thoroughfare this year, as they do not care to have all the roads torn up at one time, and they have had enough experience with partially completed improvements during the winter season. It is also argued that the improvement of but one road will give them a chance to decide whether they have selected the best method of improving the thoroughfares, and future councils can profit by their experience.

The plan is a good one, but the only trouble will be to decide which road shall be improved this year. Members from the Fourth ward will be desirous of having Jethro street or Lisbon road improved, while members from the First ward will want the road to East End improved. California hollow road and Calcutta road will also have some champions.

Council has not yet decided whether to improve the upper or lower road to East End, and this may also make an interesting question.

Life In Mars.

Megamicros, as we shall call our man of the earth transported in his sleep to the new Mars, wakes up, opens his eyes and finds himself in bed in his room. All the things in it are familiar to him—the furniture, clothes, books and wares are just where he had left them overnight. He does not suspect the trick that has been played on him. He stretches himself, throws up his arms, leaps from his bed, goes to the washstand, lifts the pitcher, puts on his clothes—and is greatly surprised.

All these actions are of a common character and consist in raising masses to a certain height. His water pitcher, for instance, holds two liters, more measure. On the earth the two liters, representing two kilograms, require a certain effort to be raised, say, to the height of 30 centimeters. But on Mars these two liters weigh only two Martian kilograms, or 16 times less in earthly weight. Further, he does not have to lift them to a height of 30 centimeters, but of only 15 centimeters, his size being diminished one-half, so that the work to be performed is reduced to one-thirty-second. On the other hand, his strength, which is proportioned to the volume or the mass of his muscles, is only reduced to one-eighth. Consequently the effort he is required to make is four times less. His water pitcher seems extremely light, so do his clothes. He probably remarked the same thing when he threw up his arms and jumped from his bed, but simply thought he was in unusually good spirits.—M. J. Delbœuf in Popular Science Monthly.

MacMonnies' Studio In Paris.

Those who expect to find in the studio of Frederick MacMonnies in Paris a sumptuous apartment, full of rare and costly "objets d'art" and hung with luxurious tapestries and brocades will be greatly astonished upon beholding its almost barnlike severity. It is a workshop pure and simple, and its very bareness is eloquent of the high and serious plane on which the sculptor puts his art. But those who have seen it pronounce it fascinating for all that. There is not even a floor. One finds himself on entering on bare, uneven ground. In one corner is a big cage, and inside is a beautiful wild leopard, continually pacing up and down. MacMonnies is so fond of animals that he keeps this beast in his studio for the pleasure of watching the beauty of its stealthy movements. Scattered all around are numerous old casts of finished work, and also the uncompleted fragments he is now at work on. Among the former are the familiar Sir Harry Vane of the Boston Public Library and the beautiful but unfortunate Bacchante, and among the latter are parts for the colossal groups for the gateway of the Brooklyn park, to which he is now devoting all of his time.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Simla's Idea of Fun.

One of the most amusing incidents of the recent Simla season was the impersonation of two foreign noblemen by two gentlemen well known in Simla society, one of them posing as the war correspondent of the Italian paper Roma. Skillful was the disguise, and so admirably were their parts kept up that the two distinguished foreigners spent the evening with a party in the commander in chief's box and afterward had supper on the stage with the actors without their identity being discovered. At supper the count appeared to find the wines of the English more potent than those of his own country, and the speechless horror of the mamma when he commenced to pay marked court to her daughter very nearly caused the baron to die of suppressed laughter and apoplexy. Next day, when the hoax was discovered, there was some fluttering in the dovecots as to what they had said to the foreign noblemen and what the wicked count had said to them. The rest of Simla roared.—Lahore Civic and Military Gazette.

How Gold Was Found on the Klondike.

"The River Trip to the Klondike" is described in The Century by John Sidney Webb. The author says:

The famous Bonanza creek and the more famous El Dorado creek are very like ordinary, everyday creeks in appearance—a little less civilized perhaps than creeks to be met with in the east. There are men living in Alaska today who have hunted moose over these creeks dozens of times; but, as the old miners say, there were no surface indications to lead any one to suppose that gold might be found in them, so hundreds of miners passed by in their boats, going to Forty Mile and Circle City. The finding of such gold is always an accident, and the old hands are usually the last to realize the truth. "Stick George" Cormack and his squaw's relatives camped on the creek for dinner one day and somehow got to digging and washed out some gold. He went to Forty Mile and made claim for discovery, and soon the news spread like wildfire.

Suited Him.

Irate Father—I'm getting tired of his nonsense. You've been engaged to that young man for six months. Does he ever intend to marry you?

Daughter—You must have patience, papa. Remember, he's an actor.

Father—What's that got to do with it?

Daughter—He's fond of long engagements.—London Fun.

Beautiful Winona.

Winona lake, Indiana, (formerly Eagle lake) is an attractive summer haven on the Pennsylvania lines near Warsaw, Indiana. As the site of Winona Assembly and Summer school, this resort has grown into popular favor very rapidly. Improvements made on the two hundred acres of romantic woodland which stretches nearly two miles along the eastern shore of Winona lake, a beautiful sheet of water, include all the comforts and conveniences for a highly enjoyable sojourn. Ample facilities are at hand for satisfactory entertainment at reasonable rates at the commodious hotel which adjoins the railway station at the entrance to the grounds, in cosy cottages, or in tents as may be preferred.

Persons who may desire to combine devotion, entertainment and instruction with rest and recreation will find Winona lake the ideal spot for invigorating both mind and body by instructive entertainment and study and health-giving recreation. The educational work of the Summer school is in charge of well known instructors. The college halls are equipped with all required paraphernalia; the large auditorium in which the Assembly meets, and in which prominent lecturers are heard during the season, has a seating capacity of over 3,000. An amphitheatre, race track and other facilities for athletic pastimes are provided. The fishing, bathing and boating are fine, the large fleet of boats being of the best.

The season of 1898 will open May 15. Commencing on that date excursion tickets with 15 day limit will be on sale via Pennsylvania lines. They may be obtained during May, June, July and August. The sale of season excursion tickets will begin June 1, and continue daily until Sept. 30. Season excursion tickets will be good returning until Oct. 31.

Full information about the attractions at "Beautiful Winona," its Assembly and Summer school, etc., will be cheerfully furnished all who address Mr. Sol. C. Dickey, secretary, Winona Lake, Ind. Inquiries about excursion rates, time of trains, etc., should be addressed to passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines or to F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Goods at "Half Price."

The mill agent, importer or manufacturer takes orders for a line of goods from jobbers and from large retailers for a full opening supply, but a great many of them are thus sold on a guarantee—that is, the buyers can return what they do not sell—a pretty safe business for the buyer. When the goods fail to move at a stipulated price, the sellers are notified that a certain quantity will be returned. Then new negotiations begin.

If they are in jobbers' hands and the quantity is large, a drive may be arranged for; if not large enough for this, a sale may be arranged to a larger retailer. Then comes his announcement of a large purchase from a well known manufacturer or importer, greatly below cost, and being content with a small profit they are to be sold below cost. Very often, therefore, these sales do not mean a loss to the retailer or to the importer, but usually to the maker of the goods, whether domestic or foreign. Of course, buyers from agents who make up the goods into garments or convert them into bleached, dyed or printed articles cannot well fall back upon the mills.—Textile World.

Reduced Rates to Baltimore.

On May 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th excursion tickets to Baltimore account M. E. church (South) quadrennial conference, will be sold via Pennsylvania lines. Return limit May 30th with privilege to extend to June 16th. The low fare will be open to all. For details apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent.

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

Endorsed by the A. F. of L.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark, which is found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailors' Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the underside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeited, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.

This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.

This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS. This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

UNION-MADE GOODS. This Certificate that the Confectioners and Cracker makers of the United States are in good standing for this quarter and are entitled to all privileges of this quarter and... ALL PURCHASES OF UNION-MADE GOODS SHOULD BE MADE FROM THESE SOURCES.

TO IMPROVE ONE ROAD

VOTED AT THE LAST ELECTION

It Is Believed That the Piking of One Roadway Will Teach an Important Lesson, and There Is No Desire to Have a Number of Streets Torn Up at One Time.

At the next meeting of council the question of improving the roads leading out of the city will be discussed.

It is not thought that council will decide to offer for sale the $30,000 worth of bonds, but only a portion of them, as it would be impossible to complete the improvements this year should work be commenced on all the roads.

Many of the members will advocate the improvement of the most important thoroughfare this year, as they do not care to have all the roads torn up at one time, and they have had enough experience with partially completed improvements during the winter season. It is also argued that the improvement of but one road will give them a chance to decide whether they have selected the best method of improving the thoroughfares, and future councils can profit by their experience.

The plan is a good one, but the only trouble will be to decide which road shall be improved this year. Members from the Fourth ward will be desirous of having Jethro street or Lisbon road improved, while members from the First ward will want the road to East End improved. California hollow road and Calcutta road will also have some champions.

Council has not yet decided whether to improve the upper or lower road to East End, and this may also make an interesting question.

Beautiful Winona.

Winona lake, Indiana, (formerly Eagle lake) is an attractive summer haven on the Pennsylvania lines near Warsaw, Indiana. As the site of Winona Assembly and Summer school, this resort has grown into popular favor very rapidly. Improvements made on the two hundred acres of romantic woodland which stretches nearly two miles along the eastern shore of Winona lake, a beautiful sheet of water, include all the comforts and conveniences for a highly enjoyable sojourn. Ample facilities are at hand for satisfactory entertainment at reasonable rates at the commodious hotel which adjoins the railway station at the entrance to the grounds, in cosy cottages, or in tents as may be preferred.

Persons who may desire to combine devotion, entertainment and instruction with rest and recreation will find Winona lake the ideal spot for invigorating both mind and body by instructive entertainment and study and health-giving recreation. The educational work of the Summer school is in charge of well known instructors. The college halls are equipped with all required paraphernalia; the large auditorium in which the Assembly meets, and in which prominent lecturers are heard during the season, has a seating capacity of over 3,000. An amphitheatre, race track and other facilities for athletic pastimes are provided. The fishing, bathing and boating are fine, the large fleet of boats being of the best.

The season of 1898 will open May 15. Commencing on that date excursion tickets with 15 day limit will be on sale via Pennsylvania lines. They may be obtained during May, June, July and August. The sale of season excursion tickets will begin June 1, and continue daily until Sept. 30. Season excursion tickets will be good returning until Oct. 31.

Full information about the attractions at "Beautiful Winona," its Assembly and Summer school, etc., will be cheerfully furnished all who address Mr. Sol. C. Dickey, secretary, Winona Lake, Ind. Inquiries about excursion rates, time of trains, etc., should be addressed to passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines or to F. Van Dusen, chief assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Goods at "Half Price."

The mill agent, importer or manufacturer takes orders for a line of goods from jobbers and from large retailers for a full opening supply, but a great many of them are thus sold on a guarantee—that is, the buyers can return what they do not sell—a pretty safe business for the buyer. When the goods fail to move at a stipulated price, the sellers are notified that a certain quantity will be returned. Then new negotiations begin.

If they are in jobbers' hands and the quantity is large, a drive may be arranged for; if not large enough for this, a sale may be arranged to a larger retailer. Then comes his announcement of a large purchase from a well known manufacturer or importer, greatly below cost, and being content with a small profit they are to be sold below cost. Very often, therefore, these sales do not mean a loss to the retailer or to the importer, but usually to the maker of the goods, whether domestic or foreign. Of course, buyers from agents who make up the goods into garments or convert them into bleached, dyed or printed articles cannot well fall back upon the mills.—Textile World.

Reduced Rates to Baltimore.

On May 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th excursion tickets to Baltimore account M. E. church (South) quadrennial conference, will be sold via Pennsylvania lines. Return limit May 30th with privilege to extend to June 16th. The low fare will be open to all. For details apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent.

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

Endorsed by the A. F. of L.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

The Journeyman Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.

This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.

The above label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker label.

THE NEWS OF WELLSVILLE.

THE NEW COUNCIL MET

It Did Not Take Long to Begin Business.

APPOINTMENTS ARE ALL MADE

Mayor Dennis Sent In His List, and It Was Acted Upon Without Delay—Other Business Transacted In a Hurry—The Officials.

Roll call showed all members present at the meeting of council held last night.

A report was read from J. W. Riley, showing $22 collected while he was acting mayor. A bill of $12.50 for services rendered while Mayor Jones was ill, was filed, and later on ordered paid.

A report from W. G. Stewart of receipts for $9.45, was read and filed.

A report from the water works trustees showed balance on hand March 4, of $1,700.16; collections in March, $427.81, and in April, $100.25, a total of $2,228.22. The disbursements were $545.44, leaving a balance of $1,682.78.

T. R. Andrews bond as city treasurer for $20,000, signed by Thomas H. Silver, Margaret Silver and David Silver, was accepted. The bond of H. A. Herbert for $1,000, signed by J. W. Russell and George Imbrie, was accepted.

A report was called from the committee appointed to attend to the planking of McQueen's run, but they were not yet ready.

The following bills were presented to council and ordered paid:

J. W. Riley, $12.50; Curtis Atchison, $1; S. Culbertson, 90c; James Davidson, $1.50; A. C. VanDyke, $3; James Moores, $2; W. H. Mick, $45; W. G. Rose, $24.54; J. C. Davis, $42; A. C. Morgan, $6; Wellsville Hardware company, $24.54; Alice Glenn, stenographer Lisbon, $24.75; W. A. Herbert, $419.35; J. T. Warren, $63.75; Electric Light company, $390.62; H. C. Wells, $3.30; W. C. Fraser, $76.25; board of health supplies, $13.82; A. L. Robinson, M. D., $12.50; Lyth & Son, $3.12; Peter Knepper, 75c; A. D. Forbes, $2.30; Hugh Alexander, $5; fire department, $28.90. Total $1,231.85.

Mayor Dennis reported receipts $40.80.

Mr. Goetz moved that as Joseph Deniston McGinniss' piano and song recital was not a financial success council charge him only $5 for the rent of city hall. It was objected to because council had already given the usual rate to residents of the town, and that some damage had been done the stairway in taking down the piano. The motion was carried, Bowers, Rand and Armstrong voting no. Mr. Goetz said that he would see that the city should not have to pay the bill for repairs.

A resolution was read providing that the sum of $300 for three months at a rate not to exceed 6 per cent should be borrowed for the general fund. President Michaels declared the council adjourned.

After a recess Mayor Dennis took the chair and the newly elected members took the oath of office. These were O. P. Bowers, James Stevenson, J. Goetz, George Wells and Isaiah James. The retiring members are B. D. Beacom, J. P. McCalmont and J. A. Armstrong. Mayor Dennis administered the oath. H. Michaels and J. Goetz were nominated as president, Goetz receiving three votes and Michaels six. Michaels was declared elected. Mr. Goetz was unanimously elected president pro tem by acclamation. There were no other nominations made for clerk and D. A. Davidson was unanimously elected to that office. It was moved by Goetz, and seconded by Rand that H. Lownds be appointed chief of the fire department and the motion carried.

John Grafton, J. W. Menough and W. F. Blackburn were nominated for members of the equalization committee, two to elect. Menough received 4 votes, Blackburn 6, Grafton 8. Solicitor Wells called attention of council to the fact that the statutes call for an auditing committee to investigate the books of the water works annually. Wells moved that in as much as there seemed to be some dissatisfaction with the way the water works had been conducted, he moved that an expert be employed to audit the books. Solicitor Wells explained that he had not known of any dissatisfaction, but only suggested this course in the line of a better way of conducting council as to the laws pertaining to such things. It seemed to be the opinion of most of the council that only an auditing committee to comply with the law was all that was necessary, and Wells changed his motion so that it should be a committee to be appointed by the chair. Carried.

President Michaels promised to report the names of this committee at the next meeting. Moved by Cooper and seconded by Rand that council adjourn until Monday the 9th.

A DANGEROUS POSITION.

But Luckily No One Was Seriously Injured.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Smith, of Commerce street, were Sunday afternoon driving along the Highlandtown road.

When about five miles from town a colt that was being led behind the buggy suddenly leaped to the side of the buggy, and its legs became entangled in the spokes of the wheel. In its struggles to free itself the buggy was upset, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith were thrown out, sustaining painful bruises and a general shaking up, but no bones were broken. The shafts of the buggy were broken, but the horse being a very quiet one stood still, and it is to this fact that Mr. and Mrs. Smith owe their lives, as in jumping Mrs. Smith's foot caught in the wheel just as the buggy went over.

NEW MEMBERS

Were Last Night Added to the Cycle Club.

The cycle club met last evening at their pleasant quarters in the Goetz block. The meeting was well attended. Six new members were added, making a total of 35 members. Charles R. McGregor is president, Walter Morris secretary, and Henry Ament treasurer. The club decided on yellow and black as the colors. Some minor business was attended to, but nothing of public interest.

A New Concern.

Messrs. Kelley and Simpson, who have long been known to Wellsville as coal and oil merchants, have consolidated, and are now doing business as a firm.

The gentlemen will handle all kinds of hard and soft coal, oil, gasoline, etc., and promise that none but the best stock obtainable will be sold. Orders will be promptly filled, and the public can rest assured that customers will be given efficient service. The gentlemen are well known to Wellsville people, and there is little doubt of their success. *

Netted a Nice Sum.

The Rebekas gave a social at the Odd Fellows' hall last evening. Monday, May 2, was appointed as a gala day all over the state, and all the children were asked to contribute a penny each toward the children's home. A New England lunch, consisting of ginger bread and milk, was served to all present. The contributions netted a nice sum for the orphans' home in Springfield.

Resisted the Officer.

Ira Hunter, of Irondale, was arrested last night at the lower depot by Officer J. F. Moore on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and resisting an officer. He was brought before Squire MacKenzie this morning who fined him $3 and costs.

All the News.

Mr. Geo. W. Boyd, of Toronto, visited friends at Wellsville and East Liverpool yesterday. He accepted a position in the railroad shops and will go to work in a few days.

Mrs. W. W. McChesney and Miss Edna returned on the evening train Saturday from their visit to friends in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Maas expect soon to move from the corner of Thirteenth and Main streets to Jacob Maas' home, in Clark street.

Mrs. W. H. Gould, of Salineville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Wall, of Center street.

Rev. Louis Paine, with his wife, passed through town this morning on their way from Steubenville to their home near Kent. Reverend Paine was for a number of years pastor of the Methodist Protestant church, and his many friends will learn with regret that he has been in ill health for some time.

The case of David Vanfossan did not come to trial, but was settled by satisfying D. T. Steiner for his claim of $10 this morning.

In the case of H. L. Simms against Nora Dobbs for detention of property, judgment was given by default yesterday in Squire Riley's court.

Miss Maggie Reiber was home over Sabbath and returned to her duties in Pittsburgh yesterday.

George Groff and C. V. Shaub drove over to Lisbon on business yesterday, and returned the same evening.

HE GOT ANOTHER TERM

A. C. Fogo Again Elected Water Superintendent.

THERE WERE SEVEN ASPIRANTS

The Commissioners Considered the Claims of All Parties and Decided That a Change Would Not Benefit the Department at This Time.

The water trustees decided last evening that Superintendent A. C. Fogo should retain his position for another year.

There were present at the meeting J. W. Devore, N. Champney and Hugh Anderson, and the only business of importance was the election of a superintendent. The applicants were O. C. Sinclair, Thomas Stevenson, Charles Williamson, John Piner, B. D. Beacom, P. Bruner and A. C. Fogo. The announcement of Mr. Fogo's selection was met with many expressions of gratification, since his administration of affairs has been business-like and efficient.

WORK AT THE MILL.

It Will Be Started In the Very Near Future.

It is expected that work will be started on the new mill in the near future.

A number of persons who expect to find employment at the mill have been here during the past few weeks looking for houses, but many of them have been disappointed. The scarcity of houses is being seriously felt, every available building in town being occupied.

MORE SOLDIERS

Are Being Added to the Companies Being Formed.

In spite of the fact that the President will not call for more volunteers for the Cuban war, the companies being formed in this place are rapidly filling with young men.

The Sons of Veterans have a splendid lot of recruits, and the same can be said of the other company. Names are being added to the list every day.

Entertained a Society.

Mrs. C. R. Arnold entertained the Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, at her home on Front street, last evening.

Some very interesting missionary letters were read. Mrs. W. McFarland and Miss Mame Reager each sang a solo, Mrs. J. C. Catlett and Mrs. C. R. Arnold sang a duett, Miss Maggie Belle Arnold played a piano solo. Lunch was served.

Buried This Morning.

The funeral of Mrs. James Haley, wife of Engineer Haley, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, who died at the home of her father in Smith's Ferry, Sunday, was held this morning. The body was brought from Smith's Ferry on the early western train, and after services at the Church of Immaculate Conception, the body was interred in the Catholic cemetery. A number of railroad men from Liverpool attended.

Moved to the Country.

Nelson Kelley and family moved to their country home west of town yesterday. Miss Erla Kelley, a niece of Mr. Kelley, will go with them for the summer in the hope of benefiting her health.

Frank Cline will move into half the house that Mr. Kelley vacates, and Lou Maple will occupy the other half as soon as Mrs. Maple's health returns. Mrs. Maple has been quite ill with typhoid fever for two weeks.

Went Home.

William Viall, of Belle Plains, Iowa, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. May Larkin, bringing with him Master Dane Larkin, who has been on an extended visit with friends, returned yesterday to his home.

Gone to Washington.

J. T. Morris and his daughter, Miss Edna, left for Washington, D. C., yesterday. Mr. Morris' aged father resides there and he is ill. The trip has been contemplated for some time.

A report was read from J. W. Riley, showing $22 collected while he was acting mayor. A bill of $12.50 for services rendered while Mayor Jones was ill, was filed, and later on ordered paid.

A report from W. G. Stewart of receipts for $9.45, was read and filed.

A report from the water works trustees showed balance on hand March 4, of $1,700.16; collections in March, $47.81, and in April, $100.25, a total of $238.22. The disbursements were $55.44, leaving a balance of $1,682.78.

T. R. Andrews bond as city treasurer for $20,000, signed by Thomas H. Silver, Margaret Silver and David Silver, was accepted. The bond of H. A. Herbert for $1,000, signed by J. W. Russell and George Imbrie, was accepted.

A report was called from the committee appointed to attend to the planking of McQueen's run, but they were not yet ready.

The following bills were presented to council and ordered paid:

J. W. Riley, $12.50; Curtis Atchison, $1; S. Culbertson, 90c; James Davidson, $1.50; A. C. VanDyke, $3; James Moores, $2; W. H. Mick, $45; W. G. Rose, $24.54; J. C. Davis, $42; A. C. Morgan, $6; Wellsville Hardware company, $24.54; Alice Glenn, stenographer Lisbon, $24.75; W. A. Herbert, $419.35; J. T. Warren, $63.75; Electric Light company, $390.62; H. C. Wells, $3.30; W. C. Fraser, $76.25; board of health supplies, $13.82; A. L. Robinson, M. D., $12.50; Lyth & Son, $3.12; Peter Knepper, 75c; A. D. Forbes, $2.30; Hugh Alexander, $5; fire department, $28.90. Total $1,221.85.

Mayor Dennis reported receipts $40.80.

Mr. Goetz moved that as Joseph Denton McGinniss' piano and song recital was not a financial success council charge him only $5 for the rent of city hall. It was objected to because council had already given the usual rate to residents of the town, and that some damage had been done the stairway in taking down the piano. The motion was carried, Bowers, Rand and Armstrong voting no. Mr. Goetz said that he would see that the city should not have to pay the bill for repairs.

A resolution was read providing that the sum of $300 for three months at a rate not to exceed 6 per cent should be borrowed for the general fund. President Michaels declared the council adjourned.

After a recess Mayor Dennis took the chair and the newly elected members took the oath of office. These were O. P. Bowers, James Stevenson, J. Goetz, George Wells and Isaiah James. The retiring members are B. D. Beacom, J. P. McCalmont and J. A. Armstrong. Mayor Dennis administered the oath. H. Michaels and J. Goetz were nominated as president, Goetz receiving three votes and Michaels six. Michaels was declared elected. Mr. Goetz was unanimously elected president pro tem by acclamation. There were no other nominations made for clerk and D. A. Davidson was unanimously elected to that office. It was moved by Goetz, and seconded by Rand that H. Lownds be appointed chief of the fire department and the motion carried.

John Grafton, J. W. Menough and W. F. Blackburn were nominated for members of the equalization committee, two to elect. Menough received 4 votes, Blackburn 6, Grafton 8. Solicitor Wells called attention of council to the fact that the statutes call for an auditing committee to investigate the books of the water works annually. Wells moved that in as much as there seemed to be some dissatisfaction with the way the water works had been conducted, he moved that an expert be employed to audit the books. Solicitor Wells explained that he had not known of any dissatisfaction, but only suggested this course in the line of duty as pertaining to such things. It seemed to be the opinion of most of the council that only an auditing committee to comply with the law was all that was necessary, and Wells changed his motion so that it should be a committee to be appointed by the chair. Carried.

President Michaels promised to report the names of this committee at the next meeting. Moved by Cooper and seconded by Rand that council adjourn until Monday the 9th.

A DANGEROUS POSITION.

But Luckily No One Was Seriously Injured.

Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Smith, of Commerce street, were Sunday afternoon driving along the Highlandtown road.

When about five miles from town a colt that was being led behind the buggy suddenly leaped to the side of the buggy, and its legs became entangled in the spokes of the wheel. In its struggles to free itself the buggy was upset, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith were thrown out, sustaining painful bruises and a general shaking up, but no bones were broken. The shafts of the buggy were broken, but the horse being a very quiet one stood still, and it is to this fact that Mr. and Mrs. Smith owe their lives, as in jumping Mrs. Smith's foot caught in the wheel just as the buggy went over.

ON THE ALERT.

Key West Squadron Expects Some Movement Soon.

ANOTHER PRIZE BROUGHT IN

Making Arrangements to Transport the Troops to Cuba—Several Vessels Engaged—Many Cubans to Go With the United States Troops—The Force Likely to Consist of Five Thousand Men. Congratulated Dewey on His Victory.

KEY WEST, May 3.—Although the blockade is still being maintained by the smaller cruisers, an important movement is being planned. What it is, however, can only be conjectured.

The day has been barren of actual news. The Cuban colony here is developing great activity. A mass meeting has been held to perfect arrangements for the departure of about 200 patriots who will go to Tampa, and thence to Cuba, when the army moves over to the island. This party will act in concert with the United States regulars, but its members will serve here in the capacity of scouts, though members of the regular army. The party will be under the direction of Colonel Mendez.

One of the most important captures made since the outbreak of hostilities was that of the Spanish Argonauta by the gunboat Nashville last Friday, news of which reached here last night when the warship arrived. The Argonauta had on board Colonel Corio of the Third Spanish cavalry, his first lieutenant, surgeon major, seven other lieutenants and ten privates and non-commissioned officers. All were held as prisoners of war.

The steamer also carried a large cargo of arms and Mauser ammunition. She was bound from Batabano, Spain, for Cienfuegos, stopping at Port Lonia, Trinidad, and Manzanillo. Her capture was exciting.

The auxiliary cruiser Eagle, a transformed yacht, was scouring along the southern coast of Cuba near Cienfuegos when she sighted the Argonauta and started in pursuit. She was fired upon from the shore, but continued to chase, and drove the big steamer along the coast toward the Marblehead and the Nashville, into which the Spaniard almost ran. They put a couple of shots across her bows and she quickly hove to and surrendered. The Nashville took the Spanish army officers on board as prisoners of war and brought them into Key West. She lies out in the stream and no further particulars of the capture can be learned from her.

The prize court sat to investigate the case of the Catalina. It is thought after the sitting that the prize will probably be surrendered.

TAMPA, Fla., May 3.—Two hundred native Cubans, who have been quietly enlisted in New York city by General Julio Sanguilly, have arrived in Tampa. They will be formed into a cavalry regiment, and under the leadership of the famous Cuban, who enlisted them, will probably embark for Cuba with the American troops. The rest of the regiment will be made up of Cubans from Tampa and vicinity. The New Yorkers created a sensation as they marched down the street in a body and they were followed for blocks by a perfect mob of excited Cubans.

Slowly but surely arrangements are being made for the landing of an American force in Cuba. The Plant system gave formal notice to the government that its steamers Olivette and Florida, both of which are in port here, were at the disposal of the government for use as troop ships. By Friday the following fleet of vessels is expected to be in waiting at the wharves at Tampa for the reception of the United States troops: The Florida, Olivette and Mascotte of the Plant line, the Alano and Comal of the Mallory line, the Aransas and possibly the Lampasas of the Morgan line and the Allegheny and Berkshire of the Merchants' and Miners' line.

These boats all have been contracted for and have a carrying capacity of about 6,000 troops. It is not believed, however, that the actual embarkation will take place before Sunday. Much remains to be done in the way of gathering ammunition and supplies, and several days must elapse before all is in readiness.

It is believed that the force will be made up of 3,000 infantry, 1,000 cavalry and ten batteries of artillery, in all close to 5,000 men. Only one regiment of cavalry, the Ninth, is now in camp at Tampa, but the Tenth, now at Chickamauga, will, it is believed, be brought down here to fill out the quota.

The fortifications at Egmont and Mullet Keys, commanding the south channel of Tampa bay and on which work has been rapidly pushed, are now practically complete and ready for the mounting of the guns.

ON BOARD FLAGSHIP BROOKLYN, OFF FORT MONROE, Va., May 3.—The news of Admiral Dewey's victory caused great rejoicing among the men on the flying squadron. From stoker to commander every man in the squadron knew of the victory within an hour, and there was the greatest excitement.

As the more definite news of Dewey's success came there was great jubilation. The Brooklyn was the first ship to carry Commodore Dewey's flag, and messages were sent:

"TO DEWEY—The Brooklyn, which first flew your flag, glories in your victory."

OFFICERS AND CREW.

CHICAGO, May 3.—There was no happier man in Chicago than the usually undemonstrative Boatswain F. J. Law-

kin, survivor of the Maine. He said: "They remembered the Maine. I wish I could have been there myself."

THE YALE SAILS.

Former Liner Put Out to Sea Under Sealed Orders.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The steamship Yale, formerly the American liner Paris, has left her dock here under sealed orders.

When the vessel swung out from the pier hundreds of steam vessels in the river saluted her with their whistles and a number of small cannon in the vicinity boomed salutes. On the bridge of the Yale stood Captain Watkins, her former commander, and by his side Captain W. C. Wise of the United States navy, her present commander. The Yale carried a full supply of stores for an extended cruise and had 5,000 tons of coal aboard.

The last distinguishing mark of the American liner disappeared when the name Paris was painted from her stern and the word Yale substituted in small black letters. The only mark which remains is the white band on each funnel—the American line funnel mark.

Armor For the Kearsarge.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., May 3.—Thirty special policemen are guarding the ordnance works of the Bethlehem Iron company. The company is rushing work on guns and gun carriages, and an important shipment will be made the latter part of the week. Two armor plates for the turret of the battleship Kearsarge were shipped to Newport News. The plates weigh 90 tons.

Demand to Surrender.

MADRID, May 3.—El Liberal says Commodore Dewey of the United States squadron in the Philippines has demanded the surrender of all Spanish vessels in the archipelago, threatening to bombard the ports if the demand is refused.

Expressed Their Gratitude.

LIMA, Peru, via Galveston, May 3.—A delegation from the Cuban colony here called upon the United States minister, Irvin B. Dudley, to express the gratitude of the Cubans at the attitude of the United States toward the independence of Cuba. Mr. Dudley, in reply, said he would communicate the facts to his government.

One Yankee Girl Safe.

Americans, as a rule, are not going to Spain just now, but the wife of M. Patenotre, the French ambassador at Madrid, who was formerly Miss Elverson of Philadelphia, has started to join her husband.—Boston Globe.

Spanish Hope For Intervention.

LONDON, May 3.—A special dispatch from Madrid says all classes, especially politicians, hope for intervention of continental powers, especially Germany and Russia.

The Pope Prostrated.

LENGTH OF THE WAR.

Judge Thomas Mackey Thinks It Will Extend Over Three or Four Years.

Hon. Thomas J. Mackey of South Carolina, who was a captain of engineers in the Confederate army and did splendid service in the construction of the fortifications at Richmond and other points, was seen in Washington recently.

In 1866 he made a thorough examination of Morro Castle, and the plans thereof, drawn by him, are in the war department. Judge Mackey will no doubt go to Cuba in a very short time as an engineer in the United States army. In a conversation with a Washington Post reporter the judge took a very different view of the probable length of the conflict from that generally entertained.

"I think," said he, "that our war with Spain will extend over a period of three or four years and possibly much longer. To achieve final victory we will be forced to land an army on Spanish soil, and that will bring on the greatest battle in the annals of history. A quarter of a million of men will be engaged on either side. The taking of Cuba and Puerto Rico, instead of marking the termination of the struggle, will only be its inception, and the enemy is wise enough to have discounted the loss of this territory. Spain has a population of 19,000,000 and is a warlike race. Unless we administer a crushing blow on their own soil they will not stop fighting for the next 30 years."

Klondikers Are Ready to Fight.

"The gold hunters of Alaska are not so crazy in the quest of the yellow metal that they are forgetful of patriotic claims," said Mr. E. E. Broadus of Seattle at the Ebbitt.

"Only a few days ago there was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the people of Skaguay, and a military company was formed every man of whom took a pledge to go to the front in case his services were needed by the government. A set of resolutions was adopted and forwarded to President McKinley and a roster of the officers and members of the company. It wasn't done in any spirit of idle bravado. The boys who are willing to run the risk of leaving their bones in that dreary section are the very sort who would glory in the chance to do a bit of scrapping for Uncle Sam."—Washington Post.

Vulgar Shirt Sleeves.

In an article describing the women's billiard room of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel the London Globe says: "If a man should be so bold as to remove his coat, an attendant instantly hands him a lounge jacket. All present shut their eyes and do not open them again until the ringing of a bell announces that the shirt sleeves have been covered."

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

Printed envelopes, either 6 or 8 in size, at the NEWS REVIEW, from 95 cents per thousand up, according to quality. We defy competition in workmanship or material.

ON THE ALERT.

Key West Squadron Expects Some Movement Soon.

ANOTHER PRIZE BROUGHT IN

Making Arrangements to Transport the Troops to Cuba—Several Vessels Engaged—Many Cubans to Go With the United States Troops—The Force Likely to Consist of Five Thousand Men. Congratulated Dewey on His Victory.

KEY WEST, May 3.—Although the blockade is still being maintained by the smaller cruisers, an important movement is being planned. What it is, however, can only be conjectured.

The day has been barren of actual news. The Cuban colony here is developing great activity. A mass meeting has been held to perfect arrangements for the departure of about 200 patriots who will go to Tampa, and thence to Cuba, when the army moves over to the island. This party will act in concert with the United States regulars, but its members will serve here in the capacity of scouts, though members of the regular army. The party will be under the direction of Colonel Mendez.

One of the most important captures made since the outbreak of hostilities was that of the Spanish Argonauta by the gunboat Nashville last Friday, news of which reached here last night when the warship arrived. The Argonauta had on board Colonel Corjo of the Third Spanish cavalry, his first lieutenant, surgeon major, seven other lieutenants and ten privates and non-commissioned officers. All were held as prisoners of war.

The steamer also carried a large cargo of arms and Mauser ammunition. She was bound from Batabano, Spain, for Cienfuegos, stopping at Port Louia, Trinidad, and Manzanillo. Her capture was exciting.

The auxiliary cruiser Eagle, a transformed yacht, was scouring along the southern coast of Cuba near Cienfuegos when she sighted the Argonauta and started in pursuit. She was fired upon from the shore, but continued to chase, and drove the big steamer along the coast toward the Marblehead and the Nashville, into which the Spaniard almost ran. They put a couple of shots across her bows and she quickly hove to and surrendered. The Nashville took the Spanish army officers on board as prisoners of war and brought them into Key West. She lies out in the stream and no further particulars of the capture can be learned from her.

The prize court sat to investigate the case of the Catalina. It is thought after the sitting that the prize will probably be surrendered.

TAMPA, Fla., May 3.—Two hundred native Cubans, who have been quietly enlisted in New York city by General Julio Sanguilly, have arrived in Tampa. They will be formed into a cavalry regiment, and under the leadership of the famous Cuban, who enlisted them, will probably embark for Cuba with the American troops. The rest of the regiment will be made up of Cubans from Tampa and vicinity. The New Yorkers created a sensation as they marched down the street in a body and they were followed for blocks by a perfect mob of excited Cubans.

Slowly but surely arrangements are being made for the landing of an American force in Cuba. The plant system gave formal notice to the government that its steamers Olivette and Florida, both of which are in port here, were at the disposal of the government for use as troop ships. By Friday the following fleet of vessels is expected to be in waiting at the wharves at Tampa for the reception of the United States troops: The Florida, Olivette and Mascotte of the Plant line, the Alano and Comal of the Mallory line, the Aransas and possibly the Lampasas of the Morgan line and the Allegheny and Berkshire of the Merchants' and Miners' line.

These boats all have been contracted for and have a carrying capacity of about 6,000 troops. It is not believed, however, that the actual embarkation will take place before Sunday. Much remains to be done in the way of gathering ammunition and supplies, and several days must elapse before all is in readiness.

It is believed that the force will be made up of 3,000 infantry, 1,000 cavalry and ten batteries of artillery, in all close to 5,000 men. Only one regiment of cavalry, the Ninth, is now in camp at Tampa, but the Tenth, now at Chickamauga, will, it is believed, be brought down here to fill out the quota.

The fortifications at Egmont and Mullet Keys, commanding the south channel of Tampa bay and on which work has been rapidly pushed, are now practically complete and ready for the mounting of the guns.

ON BOARD FLAGSHIP BROOKLYN, OFF FORT MONROE, Va., May 3.—The news of Admiral Dewey's victory caused great rejoicing among the men on the flying squadron. From stoker to commodore every man in the squadron knew of the victory within an hour, and there was the greatest excitement.

As the more definite news of Dewey's success came there was great jubilation. The Brooklyn was the first ship to carry Commodore Dewey's flag, and messages were sent:

"TO DEWEY—The Brooklyn, which first flew your flag, glories in your victory."

OFFICERS AND CREW."

kin, survivor of the Maine. He said: "They remembered the Maine. I wish I could have been there myself."

THE YALE SAILS.

Former Liner Put Out to Sea Under Sealed Orders.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The steamship Yale, formerly the American liner Paris, has left her dock here under sealed orders.

When the vessel swung out from the pier hundreds of steam vessels in the river saluted her with their whistles and a number of small cannon in the vicinity boomed salutes. On the bridge of the Yale stood Captain Watkins, her former commander and by his side Captain W. C. Wise of the United States navy, her present commander. The Yale carried a full supply of stores for an extended cruise and had 5,000 tons of coal aboard.

The last distinguishing mark of the American liner disappeared when the name Paris was painted from her stern and the word Yale substituted in small black letters. The only mark which remains is the white band on each funnel—the American line funnel mark.

Armor For the Kearsarge.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., May 3.—Thirty special policemen are guarding the ordnance works of the Bethlehem Iron company. The company is rushing work on guns and gun carriages, and an important shipment will be made the latter part of the week. Two armor plates for the turret of the battleship Kearsarge were shipped to Newport News. The plates weigh 90 tons.

Demand to Surrender.

MADRID, May 3.—El Liberal says Commodore Dewey of the United States squadron in the Philippines has demanded the surrender of all Spanish vessels in the archipelago, threatening to bombard the ports if the demand is refused.

Expressed Their Gratitude.

LIMA, Peru, via Galveston, May 3.—A delegation from the Cuban colony here called upon the United States minister, Irvin E. Dudley, to express the gratitude of the Cubans at the attitude of the United States toward the independence of Cuba. Mr. Dudley, in reply, said he would communicate the facts to his government.

LENGTH OF THE WAR.

Judge Thomas Mackey Thinks It Will Extend Over Three or Four Years.

Hon. Thomas J. Mackey of South Carolina, who was a captain of engineers in the Confederate army and did splendid service in the construction of the fortifications at Richmond and other points, was seen in Washington recently.

In 1866 he made a thorough examination of Morro Castle, and the plans thereof, drawn by him, are in the war department. Judge Mackey will no doubt go to Cuba in a very short time as an engineer in the United States army. In a conversation with a Washington Post reporter the judge took a very different view of the probable length of the conflict from that generally entertained.

"I think," said he, "that our war with Spain will extend over a period of three or four years and possibly much longer. To achieve final victory we will be forced to land an army on Spanish soil, and that will bring on the greatest battle in the annals of history. A quarter of a million of men will be engaged on either side. The taking of Cuba and Puerto Rico, instead of marking the termination of the struggle, will only be its inception, and the enemy is wise enough to have discounted the loss of this territory. Spain has a population of 19,000,000 and is a warlike race. Unless we administer a crushing blow on their own soil they will not stop fighting for the next 30 years."

Klondikers Are Ready to Fight.

"The gold hunters of Alaska are not so crazy in the quest of the yellow metal that they are forgetful of patriotic claims," said Mr. E. E. Broadus of Seattle at the Ebbitt.

"Only a few days ago there was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the people of Skagway, and a military company was formed every man of whom took a pledge to go to the front in case his services were needed by the government. A set of resolutions was adopted and forwarded to President McKinley and a roster of the officers and members of the company. It wasn't done in any spirit of idle bravado. The boys who are willing to run the risk of leaving their bones in that dreary section are the very sort who would glory in the chance to do a bit of scrapping for Uncle Sam."—Washington Post.

Vulgar Shirt Sleeves.

In an article describing the women's billiard room of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel the London Globe says: "If a man should be so bold as to remove his coat, an attendant instantly hands him a lounge jacket. All present shut their eyes and do not open them again until the ringing of a bell announces that the shirt sleeves have been covered."
